Down's Syndrome ,1998      Delirium Eclipse & Other Stories James Lasdun,1985      Besieged James Lasdun,2012-10-22 James Lasdun s two collections of short stories Delirium Eclipse and Three Evenings have won him outstanding praise as one of the most distinctive British writers of his generation both as a stylist and as a storyteller His work has been described by the New York Times Book Review as an elegant pathology report on the modern soul and the Village Voice calls his prose art that burrows into troubling new territory even as it glides by like a dream Besieged shows his gift for exploring the undertones of contemporary experience at its most haunting and electrically charged Against a variety of stunningly evoked backgrounds from the teeming banks of the Ganges in Varanasi to a homeless shelter in New York these powerful intensely focused narratives reverberate as Michiko Kakutani put it in the New York Times insistently in the reader s mind long after he has finished the book In Ate Menos or The Miracle a young man takes unscrupulous advantage of a woman who mistakes him for someone else and finds himself enmeshed in her desperate obsessions and nightmares In The Siege a wealthy recluse falls in love with the immigrant woman who lives in his basement On discovering she is married and that her husband is a political prisoner he embarks on a course of action that will lead simultaneously to his destruction and to his salvation Two of the stories in this collection were made into major independent film Ate Menos was the basis for the film Sunday which won the Grand Jury Best Feature Award at Sundance The Siege was adapted by Bernardo Bertolucci for his film Besieged      A History of British, Irish and American Literature Hans-Peter Wagner,2021-10-04 The third revised and enlarged edition contains discussions of British Irish and American literary works up to 2020 Focussing on outstanding writings in prose poetry drama and non fiction the book covers the time from the Anglo Saxon period to the 21st century The feature that makes this literary history unique among its rivals is the coverage of television web series as a particular form of postmodern drama The chapters on recent drama now contain detailed analyses of the development of TV and web series from Britain Ireland and America with extensive discussions of those series now considered classics In addition there are several major innovative features To begin with each century is introduced by a survey of the socio political and cultural backgrounds in which the literary works are embedded Furthermore extensive visual material more than 160 engravings cartoons and paintings has been integrated This visual aspect as well as the introductory sections on art for each century give the reader an excellent idea of the symbiosis between visual and literary representations Further innovative aspects include discussions of non fictional works from literary criticism and theory travel writing historiography and the social sciences analyses of such popular genres as crime fiction science fiction fantasy the Western horror fiction and children s literature footnotes explaining technical and historical terms and events a detailed glossary of literary terms chronological tables for British Anglo Irish and American literatures an updated cut off date 2020 extensive bibliography containing suggestions for further reading      Bluestone James Lasdun,2015-05-05 A selection of poems spanning the career of noted British poet James Lasdun It's Beginning to Hurt James Lasdun,2010-08-03 The stories in this remarkable collection including An Anxious Man winner of the National Short Story Prize UK are vibrant and gripping James Lasdun's great gift is his unfailing psychological instinct for the vertiginous moments when the essence of a life discloses itself With forensic skill he exposes his characters hidden desires and fears drawing back the folds of their familiar self delusions their images of themselves their habits and routines to reveal their interior lives with brilliant clarity In sharply evoked settings that range from the wilds of Northern Greece to the beaches of Cape Cod these intensely dramatic tales in It's Beginning to Hurt chart the metamorphoses of their characters as they fall prey to the full range of human passions They rise to unexpected heights of decency or stumble into comic or tragic folly They throw themselves open to lust longing and paranoia always recognizably mirrors of our own conflicted selves As James Wood has written James Lasdun seems to be one of the secret gardens of English writing When we read him we know what language is for again This collection of haunting richly humane pieces is further proof of the powers of an enormously inventive writer Give Me Everything You Have James Lasdun,2014-02-04 Chronicles author James Lasdun's strange and harrowing ordeal at the hands of a former student a self-styled verbal terrorist who began trying in her words to ruin him
