Demasiado Amor:

The Will to Heal Felicia Lynne Fahey, 2007 How six Latina authors whose works combine autobiography and fiction use this technique to heal from personal and political trauma

Contemporary Spanish American Novels by Women Susan Carvalho, 2007 A reading of contemporary women's fiction in Spanish America in which space rather than time is seen as the driver of the narrative Space is critical to imaginative writing As English novelist Elizabeth Bowen has observed nothing can happen nowhere This book offers an interdisciplinary framework for reading novels and in particular women's fiction in Spanish America with a focus on geoplots on space rather than time as the narrative engine Following the work of Lefebvre and Friedman the author examines recent works by Spanish America's most visible women novelists Angeles Mastretta Mexico Isabel Allende Chile Rosario Ferr Puerto Rico Sara Seifchovich Mexico and Laura Restrepo Colombia and the ways in which their female protagonists challenge the spatial barriers erected by capitalist hegemony Margins borders liminal spaces the chora space and the body are emphasized as potential sites of transgression The analysis identifies spatial negotiation as a mechanism both for cementing and for undermining authority thus exposing the strategies through which literature constructs and represents power SUSAN CARVALHO is Associate Professor of Hispanic Studies at the University of Kentucky and Director of the Middlebury College Spanish School

Cinemachismo Sergio de la Mora, 2009-01-27 After the modern Mexican state came into being following the Revolution of 1910 hyper masculine machismo came to be a defining characteristic of mexicanidad or Mexican national identity Virile men pelados and charros virtuous prostitutes as mother figures and minstrel like gay men were held out as desired and or abject models not only in governmental rhetoric and propaganda but also in literature and popular culture particularly in the cinema Indeed cinema provided an especially effective staging ground for the construction of a gendered and sexualized national identity In this book Sergio de la Mora offers the first extended analysis of how Mexican cinema has represented masculinities and sexualities and their relationship to national identity from 1950 to 2004 He focuses on three traditional genres the revolutionary melodrama the cabaretera dancehall prostitution melodrama and the musical comedy buddy movie and one subgenre the fichera brothel cabaret comedy of classic and contemporary cinema By concentrating on the changing conventions of these genres de la Mora reveals how Mexican films have both supported and subverted traditional heterosexual norms of Mexican national identity In particular his analyses of Mexican cinematic icons Pedro Infante and Gael Garc a Bernal and of Arturo Ripstein's cult film El lugar sin l mites illuminate cinema's role in fostering distinct figurations of masculinity queer spectatorship and gay male representations De la Mora completes this exciting interdisciplinary study with an in depth look at how the Mexican state brought about structural changes in the film industry between 1989 and 1994 through the work of the Mexican Film Institute IMCINE paving the way for a renaissance in the national cinema

Gender and Identity Formation in Contemporary Mexican Literature Marina Pérez de Mendiola, 1998 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Ambivalence, Modernity, Power Nuala Finnegan, 2007 By incorporating a variety of critical approaches within a feminist framework the author here argues that Mexican women writers participate in a crucial project of unsettling dominant discourses as they strive for new ways of capturing the ambivalent position of the Mexican women in their texts

Politically Writing Women in Hispanic Literature Martha Lorena Rubí, Martha Lorena Rubi, 2011 This groundbreaking study explores feminist theory and literary criticism embedded in seventeen works by Hispanic American authors and Latina writers in the United States The books bring out women's philosophic and historic concepts of becoming a woman politically in the public sphere of society Philosophers like Luce Irigaray and Deleuze and Guattari have realized that woman's representation in philosophic discourses are missing The universal mankind or the omnipresent self can no longer ignore that women have different experiences than man in both the private and public realm Each aesthetic work whether novel poem or short story brings a woman centered concern written by a woman author The first fourteen lie in diversity historic national cultural and ethnic experiences that Hispanic women undergo daily or during times of social upheaval mainly dictatorships How they write imparts experience and action in her trials of becoming multiple selves or subjectivities which theorists and female critics alike identify is missing from two thousand years of Western Philosophy The stories are unique as the introduction underlines the basis of the concept of becoming which women may embrace in writing themselves politically in literature The last four works by U S Latinas is further problematized through the process of immigration Hispanic women on their way to becoming Americans have many factors to consider race gender ethnicity education and social class which applies to all the main woman characters in each selective work The criterion is set in the Introduction and applied to work which inspired it Written from a multicultural standpoint draws from an interdisciplinary perspective whether psychology economics feminist theories philosophy and history The study intends to look at ways of thinking the woman question and how she defines herself in the process Persiles Y Sigismunda Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, 1914
