Philadelphia Mural Arts @ 30 Jane Golden, David Updike, 2014-03-03 While the Mural Arts Program has significantly changed the appearance of the city it has also demonstrated how participatory public art can empower individuals and promote communal healing around difficult issues Philadelphia Mural Arts 30 is a celebration of and guide to the program's success Unlike Philadelphia Murals and the Stories They Tell and its sequel More Philadelphia Murals and the Stories They Tell Philadelphia Murals 30 showcases the results of 21 projects completed since 2009 and features essays by policy makers curators scholars and educators that offer valuable lessons for artists activists and communities to emulate Philadelphia Mural Arts 30 traces the program's history and evolution acknowledging the challenges and rewards of growth and change while maintaining a core commitment to social personal and community transformation Contributors include Dr Arthur C Evans Jr Arlene Goldbard Thora Jacobson Rick Lowe Dr Samantha L Other Planes of There Renée Green, 2014-11-10 For more than two decades the artist Renée Green has created an impressive body of work in which language is an essential element Green is also a prolific writer and a major voice in the international art world Other Planes of There gathers for the first time a substantial collection of the work she wrote between 1981 and 2010 The selected essays initially appeared in publications in different countries and languages making their availability in this volume a boon to those wanting to follow Green's artistic and intellectual trajectory Charting this cosmopolitan artist's thinking through the decades Other Planes of There brings essays film scripts reviews and polemics together with reflections on Green's own artistic practice and seminal artworks It immerses the reader in three decades of contemporary art showcasing the art and thought the incisive critiques and prescient observations of one of our foremost artists and intellectuals Sound cinema literature time based media and the relationship between art forms and other forms of knowledge are just a few of the matters that Green takes up and thinks through Sixty four pages of color plates were selected by the artist for this lavishly illustrated volume Asking the

Audience Adair Rounthwaite, 2017-02-21 The 1980s was a critical decade in shaping today's art production While newly visible work concerned with power and identity hinted at a shift toward multiculturalism the 80s were also a time of social conservatism that resulted in substantial changes in arts funding In Asking the Audience Adair Rounthwaite uses this context to analyze the rising popularity of audience participation in American art during this important decade Rounthwaite explores

two seminal and interrelated art projects sponsored by the Dia Art Foundation in New York Group Material's Democracy and Martha Rosler's If You Lived Here These projects married issues of social activism such as homelessness and the AIDS crisis with various forms of public participation setting the precedent for the high profile participatory practices currently dominating global contemporary art Rounthwaite draws on diverse archival images audio recordings and more than thirty new interviews to analyze the live affective dynamics to which the projects gave rise Seeking to foreground the audience experience in understanding the social context of participatory art she argues that affect is key to the audience's ability to exercise agency within the participatory artwork From artists and audiences to institutions funders and critics Asking the Audience traces the networks that participatory art creates between various agents demonstrating how since the 1980s leftist political engagement has become a cornerstone of the institutionalized consumption of contemporary art
