Department of Printed Books. Thomason Collection,George Thomason,1908 LC copy replaced by microfilm The Miraculous Flying House of Loreto Karin Vélez,2019 In 1295 a house fell from the evening sky onto an Italian coastal road by the Adriatic Sea Inside awestruck locals encountered the Virgin Mary who explained that this humble mud brick structure was her original residence newly arrived from Nazareth To keep it from the hands of Muslim invaders angels had flown it to Loreto stopping three times along the way This story of the house of Loreto has been read as an allegory of how Catholicism spread peacefully around the world by dropping miraculously from the heavens In this book Karin V lez calls that interpretation into question by examining historical accounts of the movement of the Holy House across the Mediterranean in the thirteenth century and the Atlantic in the seventeenth century These records indicate vast and voluntary involvement in the project of formulating a branch of Catholic devotion V lez surveys the efforts of European Jesuits Slavic migrants and indigenous peoples in Baja California Canada and Peru These individuals contributed to the expansion of Catholicism by acting as unofficial authors inadvertent pilgrims unlicensed architects unacknowledged artists and unsolicited cataloguers of Loreto Their participation in portaging Mary s house challenges traditional views of Christianity as a prepackaged European export and instead suggests that Christianity is the cumulative product of thousands of self appointed editors V lez also demonstrates how miracle narratives can be treated seriously as historical sources that preserve traces of real events

Drawing on rich archival materials The Miraculous Flying House of Loreto illustrates how global Catholicism proliferated through independent initiatives of untrained laymen Architecture in Manuscript, 1601-1996 British Architectural Library, Royal Institute of British Architects, 1998 The first guide to the single most comprehensive source of unpublished documentary material on the history of architecture this major reference work will be essential for anyone seeking source material for the study of architectural history and practice and for the conservation and restoration of the architectural heritage The British Architectural Library s manuscript and archives collection at the Royal Institute of British Architects is unrivalled in the breadth and extent of its holdings of unpublished material relating to the theory and practice of architecture The collection which started soon after the founding of the RIBA in 1834 includes material dating from the early seventeenth century to the present day ranging from an account of charges for the repair of Richmond Palace supervised by Inigo Jones in 1621-22 to the papers of Berthold Lubetkin Architecture in Manuscript provides a practical guide to the contents and use of this large and important collection and will enable researchers librarians and archivists to locate original source material whose existence has hitherto been very little known The guide consists of The Loveliest Home That Ever Was Steve Courtney, Hal Holbrook, 2011-01-01 The official guide to The Mark Twain House Museum this volume tells the dramatic story of the famous author and his family and their Victorian mansion The history of the house and its residents is illustrated with architectural drawings and period photos as well as dozens of new color images of the building s magnificent exterior and interior What Do I Read Next? 00 V2 Gale Group, 2000-11 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Non-Dewey decimal classified titles R.R.
