Islam and Nationalism in India M.T. Ansari,2015-10-30 Islam in India as elsewhere continues to be seen as a remainder in its refusal to conform to national and international secular modern norms Such a general perception has also had a tremendous impact on the Muslims of the Indian subcontinent who as individuals and communities have been shaped and transformed over centuries of socio political and historical processes by eroding their world view and steadily erasing their life worlds This book traces the spectral presence of Islam across narratives to note that difference and diversity demographic as well as cultural can be espoused rather than excised or exorcized Focusing on Malabar home to the Mappila Muslim community in Kerala South India and drawing mostly on Malayalam sources the author investigates the question of Islam from various angles by constituting an archive comprising popular administrative academic and literary discourses The author contends that an uncritical insistence on unity has led to a formation in which minor subjects embody an excess of identity in contrast to the Hindu citizen whose identity seemingly coincides with the national This has led to Muslims being the source of a deep seated anxiety for secular nationalism and the targets of a resurgent Hindutva in that they expose the fault lines of a geographically and socio culturally unified nation An interdisciplinary study of Islam in India from the South Indian context this book will be of interest to scholars of modern Indian history political science literary and cultural studies and Islamic studies Indian Short Stories, 1900-2000 I. Vi Rāmakṛṣṇan, 2005 The Forty Three Stories From Twenty One Languages Anthologised Here Reflect The Diversity And Complexity Of Life Lived In India From The Violence And Mass Hysteria Of The Partition To The Supressed Rage And The Gnawing Self Pity Of Individuals Trapped In Broken Homes These Stories Capture The Outer And The Inner Lives Of Indian Society The Sacred And The Profane The Elite And Subaltern Meet In Many Layered Narratives In These Stories Providing Us Metaphors To Visualize Ourselves These Stories Map An Eventful Century During Which Our Country Emerged Into A Nation The Images Gathered Here From The Haunted Interiors Of The Twentieth Century Are Both Disquieting And Illuminating The Master Carpenter Mt Vasudevan Nair, 2005 When the winds blow wild snuffing out the flames it is the Master Carpenter who takes up the challenge Some quick calculations later he raises a stone slab and the lamp burns steady When his own heart plays games the games of desire once again he triumphs But how does a father react who knows that his son has far surpassed his talent and fallen short of his heritage The legend of Perumthachan the Master Carpenter is recreated vividly from a popular folk tale by MT Vasudevan Nair the Jnanpith Sahitya Akademi and Padma Bhushan award winning writer Writing Fantasy & Science Fiction Brian M. Stableford, 1997 The Train That Had Wings M. Mukundan, 2020-09-03 The Train That Had Wings presents modern life in Kerala in terms of a shared but tragically compromised humanity Mukundan dares to look beneath the routines and facades of everyday life in order to probe depth of sin greed and hypocrisy but also to rediscover what brings joy and hope Sixteen short story translations and a critical introduction offering examples of Mukundan s realistic existentialist psychedelic and parabolic stories show his range and talent for the very short story If Hawthorne wrote twice told tales Mukundan writes half told tales stories that jump in the middle stomp around for just a minute and leap away almost before the reader can settle in Half told but a powerful and infectious half Demon Seed Dean Ray Koontz,1987 Demon Seed ,2005 The Fiction Collection ,2007 For some years now it s been happy season for books and publishing in India But the most enduring success story in English language trade publishing in the country indeed in all of Asia began long before this The present gold rush owes a great deal to the foresight of Penguin easily the most prestigious global publisher which made a home here when the world wasn t yet in thrall to the Indian market Penguin India began operating at a time when trade publishing in English was virtually unknown in the country The company launched its local programme in 1987 with seven titles two novels in English and one in translation from Bengali two biographies a travelogue and a book of poems Two decades on it publishes 200 new books annually across a wide range of genres Along the way it has published authors from every country in the Subcontinent In 2005 with the launch of its Hindi list Penguin became the first global publisher to publish in an Indian language other than English and now releases over sixty titles every year in Hindi Marathi Malayalam and Urdu When it was set up in a two bedroom flat in New Delhi Penguin India s most valuable asset was a boardroom table made of teak at which strategies were devised contracts signed and commitments made Today the table is no longer listed among the company s assets Instead it can boast the finest list of Indian authors or authors of Indian origin anywhere in the world And the list keeps growing among the long admired names we ll publish in the coming months are Kamala Markandaya with her posthumous novel Bombay Tiger and Amitav Ghosh with his stunning new novel Sea of Poppies the first in a trilogy Penguin India s publishing remains as vibrant and confidently eclectic as our first clutch of titles promised Our best authors our true wealth have stayed with us through the years and helped us bring the best in contemporary Indian and international literature to readers everywhere These commemorative volumes of the finest writing we ve published up to our twentieth year are dedicated to each one of them Showcased here are authors who have topped best seller charts in India and abroad and won virtually every major literary prize including the Nobel Prize the Jnanpith Award the Man Booker Prize the Sahitya Akademi Award and the Commonwealth Writers Prize It is unlikely you will find a richer more representative collection of writing from or about South Asia Now when virtually every major international trade publisher is present in India the fastest growing English language publishing market in the world Penguin India remains committed to the vision laid out on that teak table twenty years ago It is a vision that has ensured that Penguin in India as in the rest of the world is the publisher of choice for the best writers and the most discerning readers And this is exactly how things will be twenty years from now
