Demonic Possession And Exorcism In Early Modern France:

Demonic Possession and Exorcism Sarah Ferber,2013-01-11 This is a highly original study of demon possession and the ritual of exorcism both of which were rife in early modern times and which reached epidemic proportions in France Catholics at the time believed that the Devil was everywhere present in the rise of the heretics in the activities of witches and even in the bodies of pious young women The rite of exorcism was intended to heal the possessed and show the power of the Church but it generated as many problems as it resolved Possessed nuns endured frequently violent exorcisms exorcists were suspected of conjuring devils and possession itself came to be seen as a form of holiness elevating several women to the status of living saints Sarah Ferber offers a challenging study of one of the most intriguing phenomena of early modern Europe Looking towards the present day the book also argues that early modern conflicts over the Devil still carry an unexpected force and significance for Western Christianity

Witch Politics in Early Modern Europe (1400-1800)

Stephan Quensel,2023-06-26 Why does an entire society believe that there are witches who must be burned What roles did the emerging state the professions of clerics and jurists and the public involved play in each case And how could this project be completed From a sociological point of view the findings of recent international research on witches provide a model of a more general highly ambivalent pastoral attitude according to which a shepherd has to care for the welfare of his flock as well as for its erring sheep The first main part describes the clerical initial situation which developed the Dominican demonological model of witchcraft on the basis of the still dominant magico religious mentality in the 15th century A model according to the second part of the book which then in the course of the 16th century in Western Europe increasingly fell into the hands of the not so innocent jurists From there it developed into a legal witch persecution that realized the early European witch model from the village witch to the mass persecutions to the late child witches The third part describes how witch persecutions slowly became less important towards the end of the 17th century as a general witchcraft politics game in the transition from a confessional state to a court civil service state

French Connections Andrew N. Wegmann,Robert Englebert,2020-11-04 French Connections examines how the movement of people ideas and social practices contributed to the complex processes and negotiations involved in being and becoming French in North America and the Atlantic World between the years 1600 and 1875 Engaging a wide range of topics from religious and diplomatic performance to labor migration racialization and both imagined and real conceptualizations of Frenchness and Frenchification this volume argues that cultural mobility was fundamental to the development of French colonial societies and the collective identities they housed Cases of cultural formation and dislocation in places as diverse as Quebec the Illinois Country Detroit Haiti Acadia New England and France itself demonstrate the broad variability of French cultural mobility that took place throughout this massive geographical space Nevertheless these communities shared the same cultural root in the midst of socially and politically fluid landscapes where cultural mobility came to define and indeed sustain communal and individual identities in

French North America and the Atlantic World Drawing on innovative new scholarship on Louisiana and New Orleans the editors and contributors to French Connections look to refocus the conversation surrounding French colonial interconnectivity by thinking about mobility as a constitutive condition of culture from this perspective separate spheres of French colonial culture merge to reveal a broader more cohesive cultural world The comprehensive scope of this collection will attract scholars of French North America early American history Atlantic World history Caribbean studies Canadian studies and frontier studies With essays from established award winning scholars such as Brett Rushforth Leslie Choquette Jay Gitlin and Christopher Hodson as well as from new progressive thinkers such as Mairi Cowan William Brown Karen L Marrero and Robert D Taber French Connections promises to generate interest and value across an extensive and diverse range of concentrations
