topics EastHill's goal is to produce books on subjects that are not being adequately covered by other books and to design those books in such a way that they can be easily read and used by the audience for whom they're intended. Minding Her Own Business: The Self-Employed Woman's Guide to Taxes and Recordkeeping is EastHill's first title. A long-time tax and business consultant takes the numb out of numbers and gives women entrepreneurs all the information and forms they need to save money and stay out of trouble with the IRS. According to the National Foundation of Women Business Owners, there are nearly 8 million woman-owned businesses. Women are starting businesses at twice the rate men are according to the U.S. Small Business Administration, and it is estimated that by the year 2000, women will own half of all small businesses. This guide, written especially for new business owners and the recently self-employed, takes a detailed look at starting a new business and keeping accurate records, explaining each step in simple language even the most number-phobic can understand. Readers will also find plentiful tax forms, examples, and answers to commonly asked questions. New to this edition are complete information on 1997 tax law changes and an expanded resource section featuring lots of new web sites. Down to earth, comprehensive guide presented in a clear, inviting format. Indispensable for the new small business owner. FeministBookstore News
