Democracy Without Borders Transnationalisation And Conditionality In New Democracies:

Democracy without Borders Jean Grugel, 2002-01-04 This book carves out a new area of democratisation studies by analysing the transnational dimension and the role of non state actors across three different geographical regions Chapters utilise empirical data from Europe Africa and Latin America

The Dynamics of Democratization Geoffrey Pridham, 2000-01-01 A systematic comparison of three sets of democratization cases in Europe since 1945 post war Italy and West Germany Southern Europe from the mid 1970s and Central and Eastern Europe in the 1990s this book highlights diversities of the historical context political experience democratic traditions economic development and cultural background Pridham views the democratization process as a whole not just as either democratic transition or subsequent regime consolidation as is the case with much of the literature on this subject and while his major concern is political regime change other forms of transformation such as economic or state building are included where these are especially important He uses the rich diversity of the European experience in this area to apply an interactive dynamics theory of democratization and proposes this as a means of overcoming the deficiencies of existing theories which have proved inadequate for explaining the ongoing democratization and transformation processes in Central and Eastern Europe in particular

Opposing Europe?: The Comparative Party Politics of Euroscepticism Aleks Szczerbiak, Paul Taggart, 2008-04-24 The project of European integration now spans Europe but in becoming bigger and broader the European Union has brought on itself significant criticism As the EU becomes deeper wider and more ambitious so opposition and scepticism become more prominent for citizens and more problematic for elites Concerns about a democratic deficit and the distance between European elites and publics have come to be a common feature of European politics As a consequence Euroscepticism has become a part of the terrain of conflict between political parties across Europe Opposing Europe provides the first comprehensive review of party based Euroscepticism across the breadth of contemporary Europe and the first in depth comparative academic study of Euroscepticism This the second of two volumes is made up of comparative chapters which address different aspects of Euroscepticism The volume looks across Europe and includes EU member states and candidate and non member states in order to draw out comparative lessons that relate to the nature of political parties party systems and the domestic politics of European integration Opposing Europe is a groundbreaking state of the art book that provides a definitive review of a key issue in European politics It is also one of the few attempts to integrate the fields of EU studies with both West European and East European studies in order to draw lessons about the way in which the EU interacts with domestic politics in both member and non member states Examining the way that parties position themselves and compete on the European issue provides powerful lessons for the trajectory of the European integration project more generally and on the prospects for the emergence of a European political system and polity

Why Elections Fail Pippa Norris, 2015-07-08 This volume compares international and institutional accounts as alternative perspectives to explain why elections fail to meet international standards Turkey and EU Integration Çigdem Nas, Yonca Özer, 2017-05-18 What has been achieved regarding Turkey's efforts at integration to the EU and what obstacles remain to it achieving full membership Like other developing countries Turkey displays visible signs of advancement with rapid increases in living standards greater mobility and the rapid spread of technology Much of its legislation and political economic and administrative systems are also now aligned to the EU and this process has undoubtedly contributed to democratization and modernization At the same time problems in politics and society persist the Gezi protests limitations of freedom of expression frequent occupational accidents in the mining and construction sectors honour killings and political upheaval which has manifested itself most starkly with the recent coup attempt all call attention to the challenges facing a country in the process of change Charting the political legal and economic relations between Turkey and the European Union since 1959 this book explores the relationship through phases such as association customs union and candidacy Each chapter covers a particular period in the relations and or a theme which has both current and overall relevance to the conduct of the relations In this way the authors examine the impact of the EU in affecting change what has been achieved and the obstacles that remain Prospects for Democratic Consolidation in East-Central Europe Geoffrey Pridham, Attila Ágh, 2001 Picturing home examines the depiction of domestic life in British feature films made and released in the 1940s It explores how pictorial representations of home onscreen in this period reimagined modes of address that had been used during the interwar years to promote ideas about domestic modernity Picturing home provides a close analysis of domestic life as constructed in eight films contextualising them in relation to a broader offscreen culture surrounding the suburban home including magazines advertisements furniture catalogues and displays at the Daily Mail Ideal Home Exhibition In doing so it offers a new reading of British 1940s films which demonstrates how they trod a delicate path balancing prewar and postwar traditional and modern private and public concerns Társadalom És Gazdaság Közép-És Kelet-Európában, 2000 Democracy in Asia, Europe, and the World Ch'öng-si An, Bertrand Fort, 2006 The Normative Environment of European Integration Józef Niznik, 2008 Opposing Europe?: Comparative and theoretical perspectives Aleks Szczerbiak, Paul A.
