Of Secrets:

Nation of Secrets Ted Gup, 2008-10-14 Award winning journalist Ted Gup exposes how and why our most important institutions increasingly keep secrets from the very people they are supposed to serve Drawing on his decades as an investigative reporter Ted Gup argues that a preoccupation with secrets has undermined the very values security patriotism and privacy in whose name secrecy is so often invoked He explores the blatant exploitation of privacy and confidentiality in academia business and the courts and concludes that in case after case these principles have been twisted to allow the emergence of a shadow system of justice unaccountable to the public Nation of Secrets not only sounds the alarm to warn against an unethical way of life but calls for the preservation of our democracy as we know it

Empire of Secrets Calder Walton, 2014-10-29 The renowned espionage historian offers a gripping account of British intelligence during the last days of empire The Daily Telegraph Drawing on a wealth of newly declassified records and hitherto overlooked personal papers intelligence expert Calder Walton offers a compelling and authoritative history of Britain's espionage activities after World War II A major addition to intelligence literature this is the first book to utilize records from the Foreign Office's secret archive which contains some of the darkest and most shameful secrets from the last days of Britain's empire Working clandestinely MI5 operatives helped to prop up newly independent states across the globe against a ceaseless campaign of Communist subversion Though the CIA is often assumed to be the principal actor against the Soviet Union through the Cold War Britain plays a key role through its so called special relationship with the United States In Empire of Secrets Walton sheds new light on everything from violent counterinsurgencies fought by British forces in the jungles of Malaya and Kenya to urban warfare campaigns conducted in Palestine and the Arabian Peninsula The stories here have chilling contemporary resonance detailing the use and abuse of intelligence by governments that oversaw state sanctioned terrorism wartime rendition and enhanced interrogation An important and highly original account of postwar British intelligence The Wall Street Journal

House of Secrets (1956-1978) #128 John Albano, Georges Kashdan, Michael Fleisher, 2020-01-16 A retired train engineer who has built his own train set by hand invites a hobo to stay with him and help run the trains after the hobo helps him with a technical problem After a toy maker offers 100 000 for the set and is refused the hobo murders the old man and attempts to hide the body so that he can claim the money
