China English in World Englishes Deyuan He, 2020-09-12 This book fills the gap in World Englishes studies in terms of the pedagogic implication of China English and its use in the Chinese workplace. Using three triangulated methods—namely questionnaire survey, matched guise technique, and focused interview—the book adopts an innovative research methodology that combines quantitative and qualitative data from 3,493 participants. Overall, the participants still believe that the standardized Englishes are desirable models of English in China and that China English should be well codified and promoted before being adopted as the pedagogic model. In addition, the book proposes that the curriculum design of university English should include an introduction to the well-defined characteristics of China English and world Englishes. Last but not least, the book reveals that English is being used more widely and frequently in the professional world than before and has become increasingly important in China.

Native and Non-Native English Speaking Teachers in China Zheng Huang, 2017-07-02 This book explores the responses of Chinese English teachers (CETs) and learners to the Native English Speaking Teacher (NEST) / Non-Native English Speaking Teacher (NNEST) issue by examining the self-perceptions of Chinese English teachers, the perceptions of Chinese learners, and the real practices of the two groups of teachers in the classroom. It reveals how Chinese students and teachers' perceptions are influenced by the combined forces of Chinese traditional culture and globalization, how Chinese English teachers' classroom practices reflect their perceptions, and how Chinese English teachers struggle to re-construct their professional identity as

English teachers in the dominant ideology and disempowering discourse of native speakerism The findings also shed light on the impacts of globalization on Chinese English teachers professional identity and provide ways to empower them as English language teaching professionals This book will appeal to a broad readership including foreign language teachers especially NNESTs around the world graduate students majoring in sociolinguistics and scholars of globalization
