The Star

A light went out on Earth for me
The day we said goodbye,
And on that day a star was born,
The brightest in the sky.

Reaching through the darkness
With its rays of purest white,
Lighting up the heavens
As it once lit up my life.

With beams of love to heal
The broken heart you left behind,
Where always in my memory
Your lovely star will shine.

Memory and Political Art in Plato's Statesman Catherine Craig,2023-04-17 In Memory and the Political Art in Plato's Statesman Catherine Craig provides an original reading of Plato's Statesman by bringing memory to the foreground The dialogue itself explores various components of political memory such as common speech myths and laws and argues that these create a framework in which we live our political lives Each of these aspects of political memory serves as an image to move the individual to rational inquiry In this way the dialogue suggests that political memory can serve as a starting point for philosophic recollection allowing for a move from knowledge of the rational soul to first principles Craig shows how Plato weaves together the personal political and philosophic dimensions of memory providing a richer understanding of the significance of memory for political life Beyond providing an analysis of the Statesman this book helps readers consider the challenges of political memory in contemporary political life while also arguing that memory mediates between universal rational principles and the particular ends and circumstances of human life
