The Priority of John John A. T. Robinson,2011-03-01 It has been the fate of many books on John to be left unfinished for its interpretation naturally forms the crowning of a lifetime I have myself been intending to write a book on the Fourth Gospel since the fifties before I broke off reluctantly to be Bishop of Woolwich though I am grateful now that I did not produce it prematurely at that time It means however that I shall be compelled to refer to and often recapitulate material directly or indirectly related to the Johannine literature which I have written over the years some of it indeed while I was bishop Many scholars in fact if not most now think that the author of the Gospel himself never lived to finish it and have seen the work as the product of numerous hands and redactors As will become clear I prefer to believe that the ancient testimony of the church is correct that John wrote it while still in the body and that its roughnesses self corrections and failures of connection real or imagined are the result of its not having been smoothly or finally edited If so I am in good company At any rate who could wish for a better last testimony from his friends than that his witness is true John 21 24 In other words he got it right historically and theologically from the Introduction At the time of his death in December 1983 John Robinson had completed the text of the book on which his 1984 Bampton lectures were to be based so that it is possible to see the full details of his extremely controversial argument that the Gospel of John was the first Gospel to be written Dr Robinson himself once described the dawning of his conviction that this was the case as a Damascus Road experience and his presentation of the evidence is made with all the customary vigor with which he would argue for something in which he deeply believed The objections which need to be overcome to stand on its head what has long been one of the fundamental assumptions of New Testament scholarship are substantial but here once again Dr Robinson shows that so much of what is taken as established fact in that area is no more than preference and presumption. Certainly he will provoke rethinking on a whole series of topics from the chronology of Jesus' ministry to the nature of his teaching. As The Listener said of the equally controversial Redating the New Testament: "The greatest pleasure Dr Robinson gives is purely intellectual. His book is a prodigious virtuoso exercise in inductive reasoning and an object lesson in the nature of historical argument and historical knowledge. This sequel equals if not excels its predecessor in those respects and is a fitting tribute to a brilliant New Testament scholar. The manuscript was prepared for publication by Dr Chip Coakley, Dr Robinson's pupil, now Lecturer in Religious Studies in the University of Lancaster."

The Spirituality of Following Jesus in John's Gospel
Sean Seongik Kim, 2017-10-12. Research on following Jesus has mostly been done in terms of what Jesus' followers ought to do. In this unprecedented study, Kim presents following Jesus in John's Gospel through the perspective of what Jesus does for his followers. Following Jesus is a journey towards the place where Jesus leads his followers: that is, to a relationship with the Father. It is ultimately participating in the Son's communion with the Father. Jesus, who was in the bosom of the Father, descended from him and ascends to him, taking his followers with him so that they may be with him where he is with the Father in glory and love. Kim develops this thesis by examining the term akolouthein (to follow) and correlated motifs in John's Gospel.

The Gospel of St. John NA, 1999-06-19. With words that echo the Old Testament story of creation, St. John sets his story of Christ in the cosmic framework of God's plan to save the world from the power of darkness. More than any other gospel writer, John illuminated the life of Jesus in an interesting way. In this book, John's gospel is presented along with commentary from well-known Biblical scholars and a foreword by Piers Paul Read.
