Deprivation and Power Patricia McEachern,1998-05-30 Looking at the sociohistorical and sociocultural context this study investigates examples of anorexia nervosa a highly symbolic form of nonverbal discourse in a selection of French novels spanning the period 1835 1889 In each of the novels there is an unmistakable association between literal and figurative hunger whereby the protagonists become human signs of their private unconscious protest They refuse food not because they are not hungry but because they hunger too much for effectiveness and self fulfillment in the face of a repressive society Each protagonist when confronted with her severely limited options and overwhelming sense of ineffectiveness discovers self empowerment through disorderly eating The starving body functions as a register of emotional anguish low self esteem and powerlessness Through a kind of gender switching most of the protagonists voluntarily take on in an attempt to challenge society s restrictive view of femininity what are commonly considered to be masculine characteristics This book will be of interest to students and faculty of literature as well as women s and gender studies Professional therapists dealing with anorexia will find new insight in this informative and unique presentation of the topic
