D'Agostino, 1994-05-25 Chronicles the life and career of Harold Lloyd with annotated entries for all of his performances Ronald Colman Sam Frank, 1997-04-16 One of the most enchanting figures of the silver screen Ronald Colman appeared in such classic films as Beau Geste The Prisoner of Zenda Lost Horizon and A Tale of Two Cities He was nominated four times for the Academy Award which he won for a spectacular performance in A Double Life His voice was unrivaled and he had a brilliant career as a radio star A charismatically photogenic performer he was voted the handsomest actor in Hollywood on several occasions His superior skills his dashing visage and his resonant speech made him one of the most sought after and acclaimed stars of his day In spite of his enormous talent and supreme achievements Ronald Colman has strangely been overlooked This immensely detailed reference book brings Colman's life and career into sharp focus corrects misleading information about him and comments on the critical response to his work The heart of this expertly researched volume is a series of chapters with entries for Colman's many hundreds of performances in film radio and television Entries provide full production information plot synopses excerpts from reviews and valuable commentary An extensive annotated bibliography summarizes and assesses material written about Colman and the author scrupulously debunks the many myths that have been written about Colman in previous publications Robert Wise Frank Thompson, 1995-01-24 The first book length study of the career of the director of such classic films as The Day the Earth Stood Still West Side Story and The Sound of Music this volume combines thorough cast and crew credits critical responses awards and nominations production notes and comments from the director himself resulting in a unique overview of a remarkable career In addition a complete annotated bibliography of all books articles and interviews by or about Wise is included An interesting feature is the examination of many of his unproduced projects Wise's career began with RKO as an editor for such films as Citizen Kane 1941 and The Magnificent Ambersons 1942 when he then stepped in for director Gunther von Fritsch to complete Curse of the Cat People 1944 At 20th Century Fox Wise directed The Day the Earth Stood Still 1951 Somebody Up There Likes Me 1956 and Run Silent Run Deep 1958 West Side Story 1961 which Wise codirected with choreographer Jerome Robbins marked the beginning of the third phase of his career a period marked by mammoth productions that met with overwhelming approval commercially and critically West Side Story Audrey Rose 1977 Helen Hayes Donn Murphy, Stephen Moore, 1993-04-22 This reference traces in fascinating detail the exceptionally long career of Helen Hayes the First Lady of American Theatre In addition to detailed summaries and commentaries on her stage film television and radio performances this volume also provides quick access to major events which shaped both her character and her career George Burns and Gracie Allen Cynthia Clements, Sandra Weber, 1996-08-23 In the minds of today's audiences George Burns was a solo act But in the history of show business he will long be remembered for his work with

Gracie Allen Few performers have enjoyed so much popular and critical acclaim Together they enjoyed phenomenal success in vaudeville radio television and film Although they were celebrities the two performers enjoyed a life remarkably free of scandal After the death of Allen in 1964 Burns made commercials a music video and an exercise video He wrote books and won numerous awards and his nightclub and convention appearances did not stop until shortly before his death Through a thoughtful biography and detailed entries this book serves as a comprehensive reference to the careers of Burns and Allen together and individually The biography summarizes their rise as vaudeville performers their work in a range of media and Burns continued achievements after Allen s death Sections of the book cover their work on the stage on radio on television and in films Each section provides detailed entries for their performances including cast and credit information plot synopses and review excerpts Appendices list their awards personal appearances and archives and an extensive annotated bibliography cites and discusses sources of additional information

Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle Robert Young,1994-06-14
Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle had an interesting and varied career as a vaudeville monologist musical comedy star and silent film comedian writer director and producer He was also the subject of scandal having been accused of rape and murder in 1921 Though he was never indicted on these charges and was acquitted of manslaughter his reputation was tarnished and the incident is alluded to even today This book draws upon extensive research to provide an objective record of his life and work The biography portion of the volume overviews Arbuckle s many accomplishments and sheds light on his controversial life Much of the material in the book comes from exclusive sources such as the tape recorded memoirs of Arbuckle s first wife and the author s recent lengthy correspondence with the comedian s third wife and widow Also included are two interviews with Arbuckle from 1916 and 1931 and a 1931 article about the path of his career after his scandal The bulk of the volume provides entries for Arbuckle s theater and film work These entries provide cast listings plot summaries and critical commentary An extensive annotated bibliography lists books and articles of additional interest

Vivien Leigh Cynthia Molt,1992-11-24
Just to say the name Vivien Leigh invokes two quick images to anyone familiar with motion pictures Scarlett O Hara and Blanche DuBois Yet Vivien Leigh did not want to be remembered wholly for her screen performances in Gone with the Wind and A Streetcar Named Desire This book is comprised of a biography describing Leigh s life work and travels A chronology contains the important events and dates in her life and the people who were part of it The stage appearances list cast and crew credits as well as the theater s in which a play was presented and the dates The filmography like the stage appearances provides cast and crew credits and synopses Molt lists the radio and television appearances as well as the awards and nominations Annotated discography and annotated bibliography follow Assembled separately posthumous tributes are the firsthand words and memories obtained by the author from those who knew Leigh or are knowledgeable about her An index completes this excellent addition to Greenwood s Bio Bibliography in the Performing Arts series

Rock Hudson Brenda Scott Royce,1995-02-28
Rock Hudson rose to stardom as the virile hero of adventure films and he then gained a flurry of female fans by starring in melodramas like Magnificent Obsession. He earned an Oscar nomination for his role in Giant, starred in successful romantic comedies, and had a productive television and stage career. This book provides full information about his many performances and charts his life and career up to his death from AIDS. Rock Hudson was a movie giant, one of the biggest stars Hollywood ever produced. He gained early fame as the romantic hero of adventure films and melodramas such as Magnificent Obsession (1954). He then tackled serious drama in Giant (1956) for which he earned an Academy Award nomination. With the success of Pillow Talk (1959), he entered a new genre for which he would become best known: the sex comedy. He also had a successful stage and television career. This book charts Rock Hudson's rise as a celebrity until his death from AIDS. A biography opens the volume, followed by chapters which chronicle his work in film, television, radio, and the stage. Each chapter contains descriptions of Hudson's individual performances, with entries providing cast and credit information, plot summaries, excerpts from reviews, and critical commentary. The volume also includes a listing of Hudson's awards and an annotated bibliography of additional sources of information.

Oliver Smith Thomas Mikotowicz, 1993-12-09. This reference provides a complete and concise record of the life and work of Oliver Smith, one of the foremost set designers of modern American theater. Narrative sections of the volume discuss Smith's career and life. Additional chapters document and analyze Smith's scenography from 1941 to the present, with special emphasis on exemplary productions and on his role in the development of American scene design. Chapters on ballet, musicals, plays, operas, and movie musicals contain entries for particular productions. Each entry explores the significance of a particular production. An appendix lists productions in chronological order and provides entry numbers to assist the reader in locating information in the book. An annotated bibliography of works by and about Smith provides additional information, and an index provides a means of accessing topics alphabetically. This bio-bibliography is a complete and concise record of the life and work of Oliver Smith, one of the foremost set designers of modern American theater.

Janet Gaynor Connie J. Billips, 1992-01-22. Winner of the Academy Award for Best Actress for three films in 1927-28: Seventh Heaven, Sunrise, and Street Angel. Janet Gaynor may be better known for her roles as the endearing orphan Judy Abbott in Daddy Long Legs (1931) and the small town girl turned actress Esther Blodgett in A Star Is Born (1937). Her entire acting career is presented here, from bit parts in 1924 to a final appearance on ABC TV's Love Boat in 1981. The opening biography assesses her lifework, which is then documented in separate chapters on her work in film, radio, stage, and television. The biography further details her recognition as a talented painter, her many philanthropic activities, and her interests in travel, food, and fashion. An extensive bibliography includes critical studies and reviews, and reveals her immense popularity in fan magazines, particularly of the 1920s and 1930s. Interesting photographs, some rare, illustrate her versatile career.
