The Creation of Nikolai Gogol Donald Fanger, 1979 Nikolai Gogol Russia's greatest comic writer is a literary enigma His masterworks The Nose The Overcoat The Inspector General Dead Souls have attracted contradictory labels over the years even as the originality of his achievement continues to defy exact explanation Donald Fanger's superb

new book begins by considering why this should be so and goes on to survey what Gogol created step by step an extraordinary body of writing a model for the writer in Russian society a textual identity that eclipses his scanty biography and a kind of fiction unique in its time Drawing on a wealth of contemporary sources as well as on everything Gogol wrote including journal articles letters drafts and variants Fanger explains Gogol's eccentric genius and makes clear how it opened the way to the great age of Russian fiction The method is an innovative mixture of literary history and literary sociology with textual criticism and structural interrogation What emerges is not only a framework for understanding Gogol's writing as a whole but fresh and original interpretation of individual works A concluding section The Surviving Presence probes the fundamental nature of Gogol's creation to explain its astonishing vitality In the process a major contribution is made to our understanding of comedy irony and satire and ultimately to the theory of fiction itself Doctor Zhivago Boris Pasternak, 1911-11-26 In the grand tradition of the epic novel Boris Pasternak's masterpiece brings to life the drama and immensity of the Russian Revolution through the story of the gifted physician poet Zhivago the revolutionary Strelnikov and Lara the passionate woman they both love Caught up in the great events of politics and war that eventually destroy him and millions of others Zhivago clings to the private world of family life and love embodied especially in the magical Lara First published in Italy in 1957 Doctor Zhivago was not allowed to appear in the Soviet Union until 1987 twenty seven years after the author's death Translated by Manya Harari and Max Hayward Die Gedichte des Doktor Živago Hella Gaumnitz, 1969 Magill's Bibliography of Literary Criticism: Longus to Sexton Stephen L.
