Book of the Fourth World Gordon Brotherston,1995-11-24 The Book of the Fourth World offers detailed analyses of texts that range far back into the centuries of civilised life from what is now Latin and Anglo America At the time of its discovery the American continent was identified as the Fourth World of our planet In the course of just a few centuries its original inhabitants though settled there for millennia and countable in many millions have come to be perceived as a marginal if not entirely dispensable factor in the continent s destiny Today the term has been taken up again by its native peoples to describe their own world both its threatened present condition and its political history which stretches back thousands of years before Columbus In order to explore the literature of this world Brotherston uses primary sources that have traditionally been ignored because they have not conformed to Western definitions of oral and written literature such as the scrolls of the Algonkin the knotted strings Quipus of the Inca Navajo dry paintings and the encyclopedic pages of Meso America s screenfold books

Classic Horror Films and the Literature That Inspired Them Ron Backer,2015-05-11 Classic horror films such as Dracula Frankenstein and The Picture of Dorian Gray are based on famous novels Less well known even to avid horror fans are the many other memorable films based on literary works Beginning in the silent era and continuing to the present numerous horror films found their inspiration in novels novellas short stories and poems though many of these written works are long forgotten This book examines 43 works of literature from the famous to the obscure that provided the basis for 62 horror films Both the written works and the films are analyzed critically with an emphasis on the symbiosis between the two Background on the authors and their writings is provided

"Twice the Thrills! Twice the Chills!" Bryan Senn,2019-02-28 In the mid 1950s to combat declining theater attendance film distributors began releasing pre packaged genre double bills including many horror and science fiction double features Though many of these films were low budget and low end others such as Invasion of the Body Snatchers Horror of Dracula and The Fly became bona fide classics Beginning with Universal International s 1955 pairing of Revenge of the Creature and Cult of the Cobra 147 officially sanctioned horror and sci fi double bills were released over a 20 year period This book presents these double features year by year and includes production details historical notes and critical commentary for each film
