Donald Judd Interviews Donald Judd, 2019-11-12 Donald Judd Interviews presents sixty interviews with the artist over the course of four decades and is the first compilation of its kind It is the companion volume to the critically acclaimed and bestselling Donald Judd Writings This collection of interviews engages a diverse range of topics from philosophy and politics to Judd's insightful critiques of his own work and the work of others such as Mark di Suvero Edward Hopper Yayoi Kusama Barnett Newman and Jackson Pollock The opening discussion of the volume between Judd Dan Flavin and Frank Stella provides the foundation for many of the succeeding conversations focusing on the nature and material conditions of the new art developing in the 1960s The publication also gathers a substantial body of unpublished material across a range of mediums including extensive interviews with art historians Lucy R Lippard and Barbara Rose Judd's contributions in interviews panels and extemporaneous conversations are marked by his forthright manner and rigorous thinking whether in dialogue with art critics art historians or his contemporaries In one of the last interviews he observed Generally expensive art is in expensive chic circumstances it's a falsification The society is basically not interested in art And most people who are artists do that because they like the work they like to do that make art Art has an integrity of its own and a purpose of its own and it's not to serve the society That's been tried now in the Soviet Union and lots of places and it doesn't work The only role I can think of in a very general way for the artist is that they tend to shake up the society a little bit just by their existence in which case it helps undermine the general political stagnation and perhaps by providing a little freedom supports science which requires freedom If the artist isn't free you won't have any art Donald Judd Interviews is co-published by Judd Foundation and David Zwirner Books The interviews expand upon the artist's thinking present in Donald Judd Writings Judd Foundation David Zwirner Books 2016
