

Don't Look
At Me

The image features the text "Don't Look At Me" in a bold, red, bubbly font with thick black outlines. The word "Look" is replaced by a pair of large, stylized eyes with blue irises and black eyelashes, framed by red circular shapes that serve as the lenses of a pair of glasses. The eyes are looking directly forward. A faint "shutterstock" watermark is visible across the middle of the image.

Don't Look at Me and Judge Barbara Dykes,2012-07-24 This life changing message was inspired by the many individuals I interviewed who told me that they didn't enter a church building because they felt like individuals would judge them because they were not perfect It was devastating to me to know that we have so many spiritually blinded individuals in church who are perishing for a lack of knowledge of God's Word and being so spiritually blind that we can not see the speck in their own eye but they think they have the ability to judge another It is such a sad mission to sit in a church building for 50 or 60 years but to get to the gate and God says I never knew you because you have caused lost souls to remain bound in their chains because of your spiritual righteousness

Don't Look at Me Like That Diana Athill,2023-08-15 A candid novel of love betrayal and friendship about a young woman who breaks with her peers moves to London and begins a shocking affair When I was at school I used to think that everyone disliked me and it wasn't far from true confesses Meg Bailey at the start of Don't Look at Me Like That Coming of age in the mid 1940s Meg finds herself to be out of place wherever she finds herself She is a nonbeliever in her father's parsonage an artistic dreamer at her stuffy boarding school a provincial in the worldly circles frequented by her best friend Roxane and Dick Roxane's future husband It is only when Meg newly graduated from art school moves into an untidy London rooming house alive with the sounds of crying children sparring lovers and even foreigners that she begins to feel at home But ties to the past are not so easily severed and Meg must disentangle herself from her troubled intimacy with Roxane and Dick before she can begin to start living in her own way Don't Look at Me Like That is the only novel by the famed memoirist and editor Diana Athill who died in 2019 at the age of one hundred and one At once clear eyed and compassionate it is a story of making mistakes and making a life
