Colonial Planning A Comparative Study:

Colonial Planning: a Comparative Study Dr. Barbu M. Niculescu, 1958 Planting, Planning and Design Diane Shafer Graham, State University of New York at Binghamton, 2001 Development and Diffusionism J. Dibua, 2015-12-04 This book deconstructs the neopatrimonial paradigm that has dominated analysis of Nigerian and African development It shows that by denying agency to Nigerian societies and devaluing indigenous culture and local realities Eurocentric diffusionism played a significant role in the failure of development planning A Comparative Study of the Planning of Spanish Colonial Towns of the 16th Century and a New Zealand Colonial Town of the 19th Century Arthur Leslie Batt, 1986

Proceedings of AC 2017 Group of authors, 2017-08-10 International Academic Conference in Prague 2017 Socialist Internationalism and the Gritty Politics of the Particular Kristin Roth-Ey, 2023-04-06 A study into the spaces of Second Third World interactions during the Cold War to understand the complex social cultural and political encounters between Second World countries and the Global South Modern European Imperialism: General and British Empire John P. Halstead, Serafino Porcari, 1974 The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, 1959-09

Sources and Methods in Histories of Colonialism Kirsty Reid, Fiona Paisley, 2017-03-27 This book facilitates a deeper understanding of the challenges of working with a range of specific source genres within imperial and colonial archives Drawing material from a range of modern empires from the late 18th century to the present day chapters consider the ways in which newer ways of thinking about the past have challenged more traditional views of the archive provoking questions about what archives are and where their conceptual geographical and chronological boundaries lie Examining a wide selection of source material including government papers censuses petitions and case files this book will be essential reading for students of imperial and colonial history French Urbanism in Foreign Lands Ambe J. Njoh, 2015-12-10 This book will seek to close the gaps on the role of France in exporting Eurocentric spatial and environmental design principles and practice It does so by analyzing the major spatial and physical development projects that French colonial authorities implemented in France's colonial empire and elsewhere from the 15th to the 20th century French urban planning ideology principles and practice were not exported exclusively to territories under French colonial suzerainty Accordingly the book focuses on major physical and spatial planning schemes inspired by French planning thought in territories without a history of French colonialism Grid Planning in the Urban Design Practices of Senegal Liora Bigon, Eric Ross, 2020-01-01 This book is the first to trace the genealogy of an indigenous grid pattern settlement design practice in Africa and more specifically in Senegal It does so by analyzing how the precolonial grid plan design tradition of this country has become entangled with French colonial urban grid planning and with present day hybrid planning cultures By thus it transcends the classic precolonial colonial postcolonial metahistorical divides This properly illustrated book consists of five chapters including an introductory chapter historiography theory and context and a concluding chapter The chapters text has both a chronological and thematic rationale aimed at enhancing Islamic Studies by situating sub Saharan Africa s urbanism within mainstream research on the Muslim World and at contributing directly to the wider project of de Eurocentrizing urban planning history by developing a more inclusive truly global urban history
