Relations in Colonial India Arup Kumar Sen,2025-05-15 This book is a pioneering study of the relationship between management and labour in three key industries namely coal jute and cotton textile in colonial India from 1900 to 1947 It studies history of labour and enterprise through a Marxian Gramscian lens The author builds a narrative of economic history alongside he pens a social history of working class life It is a rare blend of economic and social history and an indispensable tract to understand the history of capitalist industrialization and concomitant labour management relations in colonial India within the broad framework of Marxism Approaches to History Sabyasachi Bhattacharya,2011 History as a social science is arguably more self reflective than associated disciplines in that family Other social scientists seem to see little reason to look beyond the paradigm they are developing in the present times Historians on the other hand tend to depend on the cumulative process of the development of their craft and the fund of accumulated knowledge Yet while this is acknowledged in the practice of research Historiography in itself as a subject of study has rarely found its place in the syllabi of Indian universities Knowledge of Historiography is taken for granted when a scholar plunges into research In an attempt to address this lacuna the Indian Council of Historical Research ICHR has planned a series of volumes on Historiography comprising articles by subject specialists commissioned by the ICHR The first volume in the series Approaches to History

Essays in Indian Historiography brings to the readers the first fruits of that endeavour While the essays encompass areas of research presently at the frontiers of new research scholars will also find the bibliographies accompanying the essays of significant appeal
