Combating Child Labour A Review Of Policies:

Combating Child Labour A Review of Policies OECD,2003-09-07 This important book seeks to answer fundamental questions about child labour s economic causes the working conditions children endure implications of their labour for the economic outlook of the countries concerned and actions and policies to combat it Combating Child Labour: A Review of Policies Elena Arnal,Steven Tobin,Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,Raymond Torres,2003-10-21 Despite the increasing ratification of international conventions to prevent the use of child labour ILO estimates indicate almost one quarter of the world s children aged 10 14 years and about twelve per cent of children aged 5 9 years are at work Among these children about 179 million are subject to the worst forms of employment such as forced and bonded labour trafficking prostitution and other forms of exploitation This report examines the reality of child labour around the world the economic causes of child labour and implications for the future development of countries concerned and considers effective mechanisms and policies to tackle the problem at the international and national level as well as private initiatives and corporate social responsibility Combating Child Labour Assefa Bequele,Jo Boyden,1988 This work examines the developments in the campaign against child labour and the defence of the rights of children Handbook on Combating Child Labour Among Indigenous and Tribal Peoples ,2007 Provides practical guidance to ILO staff and partners on how to address the specific needs and rights of indigenous people and combat child labour among indigenous children Child Labour in South Asia Gamini Herath,Kishor Sharma,2007-01-01 This volume aims to shed light on the debate over child labor in the era of globalization by documenting the experience of Asian developing countries which have experienced rapid income and export growth The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor ,2003 The U.S. Department of Labor's 2003 Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor United States. Bureau of International Labor Affairs,2004 The report describes the efforts of 144 countries and territories to meet their international commitments to eliminate the worst forms of child labor Elaine L Chao Rapid Assessment Report on HIV/AIDS and Child Labour ,2007 International Labour Review ,1928 The OECD Observer Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2003 Child Labour Olivier Thévenon,2019 Abstract Sustainable Development Goal target 8 7 aims to eradicate child labour in all its forms by 2025 Ten years before this deadline the objective is far from being achieved since in 2016 about one in ten children 152 million in total aged 5 to 17 were engaged in child labour worldwide many of them as unpaid family workers in agriculture Nearly half of the children in child labour were in hazardous work and exposed to serious health and safety risks Moreover about one third of children in child labour do not attend school at all the others go to school but not all the time Children in child labour are more likely to leave school early before grade completion and underperform in school tests This paper reviews child labour trends and the literature on its causes and consequences It also discusses policies to combat child labour based on the lessons of the available evidence Countries must combat child labour by addressing it from all its demand and supply side dimensions by strengthening social protection to combat extreme poverty by investing in the education to make it an affordable alternative to child labour and by encouraging the diffusion of technologies that make it possible to do without child labour While most countries have adopted laws that prohibit child labour the paper argues that countries can do more to enforce these laws and regulations where necessary strengthen labour inspections and monitoring systems and promote responsible business practices International Labour Documentation International Labour Office. Bureau of Library and Information Services,2000 OECD Key Publications Catalogue Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2004 Child Labour ,2004 Human Rights and Development Philip Alston,Mary Robinson,2005 These essays address crucial aspects of the humans rights and development interface including the economics of social rights land rights and women s empowerment child labour and access to education reform of legal and judicial systems the human rights role of the private sector and building human rights into development planning Emerging Good Practices on Actions to Combat Child Domestic Labour in Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda and Zambia Mary Njenga,2006 Journal of Economic Literature ,2004 Child Labour National Action Plan For Malawi (2010 - 2016) ,2009 Action Against Child Labour International Labour Office,International Programme on the Elimination of Child Labour,2009 This report is divided into two parts Part I is the implementation report for the year 2008 which reflects on IPEC s progress over the past year towards its targets under the Organization s Programme and Budget Part II focuses on three selected themes of current interest The year 2008 was an eventful year for all involved in the struggle against child labour The global economic and food crises and the Sichuan earthquake in China showed that progress in eliminating child labour can be easily jeopardized if circumstances take a turn for the worse Saturday Review ,1872
