Transforming Images Claire J. Farago,Donna Pierce,2006 The essays collected here explore the Catholic instruments of religious devotion produced in New Mexico from around 1760 until the radical transformation of the tradition in the twentieth century The writers in this volume make three key arguments First they make a case for bringing new theoretical perspectives and research strategies to bear on the New Mexican materials and other colonial contexts Second they demonstrate that the New Mexican materials provide an excellent case study for rethinking many of the most fundamental questions in art historical and anthropological study Third the authors collectively argue that the New Mexican images had and still have importance to diverse audiences and makers
