Color Blind A Novel Of Suspense:

Color Blind Jonathan Santlofer, 2009-10-13 Kate McKinnon is back and this time it's personal. When two hideously eviscerated bodies are discovered and the only link between them is a bizarre painting left at each crime scene, the NYPD turns to former cop Kate McKinnon, the woman who brought the serial killer the Death Artist to justice. Having settled back into her satisfying life as art historian, published author, host of a weekly PBS television series, and wife of one of New York's top lawyers, Kate wants no part of it. But Kate's sense of tranquility is shattered when this new sequence of murders strikes too close to home. With grief and fury to fuel her, she rejoins her former partner, detective Floyd Brown, and his elite homicide squad on the hunt for a vicious psychopath known as the Color Blind Killer. In her rage and desperation, Kate allows herself to be drawn into a deadly game of cat and mouse. She abandons her glamorous life for the gritty streets of Manhattan, immersing herself in a world where brutality and madness appear to be the norm, where those closest to her may have betrayed her, and where, in the end, nothing is what it seems.

Color Blind Colby Marshall, 2014-11-04 SYNESTHESIA A neurological condition characterized by automatic involuntary sensory perceptions triggered by seemingly unrelated stimuli. There is something unusual about Dr. Jenna Ramey's brain, a rare perceptual quirk that punctuates her experiences with flashes of color. They are hard to explain: red can mean anger or love or strength. But she can use these spontaneous mental associations to understand and interpret them enough to help her read people and situations in ways others cannot. As an FBI forensic psychiatrist, she used it to profile and catch criminals. Years ago, she used it to save her own family from her charming sociopathic mother. Now the FBI has detained a mass murderer and called for Jenna's help. Upon interrogation, she learns that behind bars or not, he holds the power to harm more innocents and is obsessed with gaining power over Jenna herself. He has a partner still on the loose. And Jenna's unique mind, with its strange and subtle perceptions, may be all that can prevent a terrifying reality.

Robert B. Parker's Colorblind Reed Farrel Coleman, 2019-08-27 Police chief Jesse Stone tackles a disturbing case that hits right at the heart of the Paradise police force.

Jesse Stone is back on the job after a stint in rehab and the road to recovery is immediately made bumpy by a series of disturbing and apparently racially motivated crimes beginning with the murder of an African American woman. Then Jesse's own deputy Alisha, the first black woman hired by the Paradise police force, becomes the target of a sophisticated frame-up. As he and his team work tirelessly to unravel the truth, he has to wonder if this is just one part of an even grander plot, one with an end game more destructive than any of them can imagine. At the same time, a mysterious young man named Cole Slayton rolls into town with a chip on his shoulder and a problem with authority, namely Jesse. Yet something about the angry twenty-something appeals to Jesse, and he takes Cole under his wing. But there's more to him than meets the eye, and his secrets might change Jesse's life forever.

The Color-Blind Detective Bill Capron, 2009-07
C. B. Green has a unique perspective of the world. This Portland, Oregon private detective is color blind. But he doesn't let this detail stop him from doing his job and doing it well. He's a good guy; he's known as someone who never lies, never cheats, and never steals. And now, being a good guy, he takes on more cases than usual. His first client, Jane Wye, wants C. B. to recover the twenty million dollars her lawyer husband Jack stashed away before someone put a bullet in his head. Along the way, C. B. picks up two unintended clients. The first is Marion Edmunds, an old woman who volunteers at the public library. She knows she saw a crime that no one else believes happened. The second client is a dead girl, seventeen-year-old Jessica Long. Her dying words to C. B. were "Help me." At the outset, it appears that these three cases have nothing in common. But soon, C. B. discovers that these jobs are connected by a personification of evil so vile that it tests the bounds of his unique justice.

Double Vision Colby Marshall, 2015-04-07
New from the author of Color Blind, FBI profiler Jenna Ramey has synesthesia, a neurological condition that causes perceptions of color to flash through her mind, triggered by seemingly unrelated stimuli. But she has learned to understand and interpret these associations. They help her do her job. They can help save lives. A little girl has witnessed a mass shooting. What she knows may be the key to finding the man responsible. Jenna has been tasked with drawing her out, figuring out what she saw, what she remembers, what it means. But Molly is an unusual child. She is sweet and bright and eager to help, but she has a quirk of her own: an intense preoccupation with numbers. It helps her notice things that others don't. It also leads Jenna into a maze of speculation that could turn into a wild goose chase while the body count continues to rise. Jenna and Molly view the world through their own filters. In some ways, they speak different languages. Now, Jenna must learn to communicate to break Molly's code, to understand the mind of a murderer.
