Defining Literature:

From Text to Literature S. Olsen, A. Pettersson, 2005-09-14 The articles in this collection focus attention on the concept of literature and on the relationship between this concept and the concepts of a literary work and a literary text Adopting an analytic approach the articles attempt to clarify how these concepts govern our thinking about the phenomenon of literature in various ways exploring the issues which arise when these concepts are employed as theoretical instruments for describing and analyzing the phenomenon of literature Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, James A.

Reconstructing Criticism Philip Smallwood, 2003 This study aims to bring the modern theory of literary criticism and Pope's Essay on Criticism of 1711 into a more productive and interesting association than critical historical structures have generally allowed Smallwood marks out in current terms and in depth the specialized theoretical and aesthetic problem of defining criticism He recognizes that criticism no more than literature or art cannot be finally codified or defined but insists on the need for clarity in the exposition of criticism's purposes and a fuller consciousness of a common community of practice available to audiences outside the academic fold Affirming the unfailing currency and utility of the term criticism as new languages have taken over the critical domain or have sought to replace or abolish literature Smallwood distinguishes between the normative definitions that are everywhere apparent in modern theory of criticism and the advantages to conceptual comprehension achieved by Pope's poetic idea of criticism in the Essay The Handbook of Scholarly Writing and Publishing Tonette S. Rocco, Timothy Gary Hatcher, 2011-02-09 Focusing on writing for publication The Handbook of Scholarly Writing and Publishing discusses the components of a manuscript types of manuscripts and the submission process It shows how to craft scholarly papers and other writing suitable for submission to academic journals The handbook covers how to develop writing skills by offering guidance on becoming an excellent manuscript reviewer and outlining what makes a good review and includes advice on follow through with editors rejection and rewrites and re submittals

Introduction to Ethical Literary Criticism Nie Zhenzhao,2023-09-15 The title is a thorough introduction to ethical literary criticism a critical methodology designed to interpret literature from the perspective of ethics including a whole set of concepts theories and working mechanisms Drawing on ideas from both Western ethical criticism and the Chinese tradition of moral criticism ethical literary criticism contrasts with the former in its occasional lack of a theoretical foundation and applicable methodologies and the latter that tends to make subjective moral judgments Its most ground breaking argument is that while natural selection answers how humans are different from animals physically ethical selection endows human beings with reason and ethical consciousness The ethical nature and edifying function of literature is therefore asserted seeking to unfold in the literary text the ethical choices of human beings as a way to complete ethical selection in society within historical context The arguments and theoretical toolbox inject a unique ethical dimension into literary criticism and help understand anew the ethical and social potency of literature The theoretical elucidation exemplary textual analyses and a supplement of key terminologies and ancillary materials make this book an essential guide for students and general readers interested in ethical literary criticism and scholars of literary criticism ethical criticism and literary theory
