Dining Out Is An Adventure:

Dining Out Is an Adventure Janet Wilson, 2006-01 Janet Wilson is a native of Chattanooga Tennessee having grown up just across the state line in Ft Oglethorpe Georgia She and her husband Wayne Keith owned and operated a restaurant review web site Chattanooga Dine Out featuring reviews of restaurants in Chattanooga and the surrounding area They have also been featured in local print media as well as on the Internet During their tenure the couple kept the area abreast of their personal experiences regarding food service and cleanliness at each restaurant This book is written as were their articles for the average working class person using excerpts taken from actual reviews Some stories will tickle your funny bone while others will make you sit up and take notice that you do not have to settle for inferior food and service As a customer you are spending hard earned money and should get what you pay for On the other side of the coin it also serves as a tool for restaurants in their quest to satisfy the customer Numerous restaurants asking permission to use different reviews as a teaching guide for their employees have contacted Janet and hopefully this book will lend a hand in that training The Adventures of Waiterman, Lord of the Restaurant Jungle Aironius French, 2003 The Adventures of Waiterman Lord of the Restaurant Jungle is a satirical work of non fiction part expose part autobiography which is salted with social commentary and occasional vitriolic rantings It is an odyssey of growth development adventure and debauchery Note from the Author What s astounding to me is the utter lack of material either written or filmed depicting the restaurant industry in all its debauchery riddled glory I mean this is an area absolutely rich for fodder which could be appreciated by even the most solitary of hermits who have never worked or eaten in any type of eating establishment whatsoever Therefore my aim is to entertain by eliciting unbridled guffaws but also to educate the naive masses about the bizarre world known as the restaurant jungle

Renaissance city with an impressive number of buildings dating back to the 1500s many of them attributed to Andrea Palladio It was during this period that Andrea di Pietro della Gondola came to Vicenza as a 16 year old stone mason and through a combination of his own talent and a fine network of mentors grew to be the great architect who dramatically transformed Vicenza's urban image Palladio was commissioned to build palazzi for the city's wealthy residents redesign several buildings which had been badly damaged by the League of Cambrai and to make the city better reflect the influence of the Republic of Venice His finest works in the city include the Teatro Olimpico the Basilica Palladiana and the Palazzo Chiericati Italy's largest lake and one of its most visited vacation spots Lake Garda is between the Alps and the Pianura Padana Padana plains with the Trentino region bordering it to the north the Lombardy region to its west and the Veneto region to the east As one of the most prosperous cities in northern Italy and the second most visited in the Veneto Verona's streets exhibit an interesting mix of Roman medieval Renaissance and Venetian influences And with unmistakably firm roots in classical tradition the city that underwent significant urban development following World War II has a cosmopolitan identity that its high fashion stores and impeccably dressed businessmen reflect At the crossroads of two important Roman roads Verona served as a critical strategic and commercial center for many centuries It began as a colony of the Roman Empire in the first century BC and was joined with the Empire in 49 BC The arena one of the world's best preserved Roman amphitheaters was built to accommodate upwards of 20 000 spectators and along with the Roman theater and the city's gates Verona maintains its Roman identity today
