Directing Operations:

Community-Led Leadership : How Shared Leadership Is Created and What Its Requirements Are Karl-Johan Spiik, 2023-11-09 Shared leadership is doing work together In traditional leadership the focus is on looking for a culprit whereas in modern leadership the focus is on looking for a solution to solve the problem Leadership without blaming allows the employees to try out new ways and the threshold to make decisions is lowered With modern information technologies solutions are shared independent of time and place The right use of tools combined with a helpful and permissive atmosphere create the prerequisites for sharing leadership Leadership that is focused on one person is no longer necessary This book combines agile leadership methods with the solution focused nature of leadership that allows for failures Pondering responsibility is an important part of leadership but not from the point of view of the culprit but from that of the solution In leadership it is important to let go of selfish needs of being right and shining In this way it is possible to harness the synergies of all the employees for the benefit of the entire organization Shared leadership speaks about modern leadership in a simple form

United States Army in the World War, 1917-1919: Military operations of the American Expeditionary Forces, 1990

Orchestrating Warfighting Tim Bean, Edward Flint, James E. Kitchen, Paul Latawski, 2024-09-10 Orchestrating Warfighting provides a detailed and wide ranging examination of the employment of corps and divisions from the First World

War through to the early twenty first century Division and corps formations have been at the forefront of the British Army's prosecution of war since 1914 They constituted the major command and organisational elements that underpinned the conduct of large scale warfighting on land Divisions and corps were of central importance to the conduct of the First and Second World Wars the maintenance of a conventional deterrence posture during the Cold War and were also employed in major confrontations since 1945 including the Korean War and two Gulf Wars The British Army of the early twenty first century still retains two divisional formations alongside the British led Allied Rapid Reaction Corps within NATO

Orchestrating Warfighting examines British Dominion and imperial corps and divisions taking part in the total wars of the first half of the twentieth century and smaller scale conflicts since 1945 It throws new light on questions of command generalship and the management of battles and campaigns across a diverse range of theatres Orchestrating Warfighting is of interest to historians of the British Army operational military history and modern war
