Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years ... ,1927 Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired 1881/1900-. British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1927 The Theatre of the Dream Salomon Resnik,2005-11-08 The Theatre of the Dream is a profound study of our dream world and its place in everyday life The author grounds his ideas in Freud and psychoanalysis authors such as Klein Bion Rosenfeld and Matte Blanco but also draws on the approach to dream phenomena in the work of philosophers artists and poets He argues that dreams are indeed as the ancients held messages The dream is a theatrical re recreation of certain unconscious experiences which are both subjective and objective at the same time It expresses not only desire but a complex working over of a problematic situation that is not quite resolved In waking the dream is a new elaboration of everyday experience and one which creates the seeds of oracular awareness Resnik develops his thesis with ample and enlightening examples of dreams and their significance from his own patients The author s achievement is a new psychoanalytic reading of dreams one which does justice to Freud s momentous discovery but which broadens it and places it within the wider context of subsequent developments in psychoanalysis semiotics and social and cultural anthropology The book will be of great value to the professional psychotherapist or psychoanalyst as well as to students of literature the arts and linguistics and the wider public interested in the ongoing relationship between dream reality and what is commonly called external reality As has been remarked each era can be defined on the basis of relations between dream and life Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1927 The Magical Diaries of Leah Hirsig, 1923-1925 Associate Professor of History of Religions Manon Hedenborg White,Manon Hedenborg White,Henrik Bogdan,Professor of Religious Studies Henrik Bogdan,2025-06-24 The Magical Diaries of Leah Hirsig 1923 1925 presents a complete annotated collection of the magical diaries of the prominent Swiss American occultist The book includes a selection of unpublished letters and poems by Hirsig and Aleister Crowley shedding unique light on their relationship as well as women s roles in twentieth century occultism Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the British Museum Library British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1927 Women Writers and the Occult in Literature and Culture Miriam Wallraven,2015-06-05 Examining the intersection of occult spirituality text and gender this book provides a compelling analysis of the occult revival in literature from the 1880s through the course of the twentieth century Bestselling novels such as The Da Vinci Code play with magic and the fascination of hidden knowledge while occult and esoteric subjects have become very visible in literature during the twentieth century This study analyses literature by women occultists such as Alice Bailey Dion Fortune and Starhawk and revisits texts with occult motifs by canonical authors such as Sylvia Townsend Warner Leonora Carrington and Angela Carter This material which has never been analysed in a literary context covers influential movements such as Theosophy

Spiritualism Golden Dawn Wicca and Goddess spirituality Wallraven engages with the question of how literature functions as the medium for creating occult worlds and powerful identities particularly the female Lucifer witch priestess and Goddess Based on the concept of ancient wisdom the occult in literature also incorporates topical discourses of the twentieth century including psychoanalysis feminism pacifism and ecology Hence as an ever evolving discursive universe it presents alternatives to religious truth claims that often lead to various forms of fundamentalism that we encounter today This book offers a ground breaking approach to interpreting the forms and functions of occult texts for scholars and students of literary and cultural studies religious studies sociology and gender studies
