Casa De Enfrente La:

Còdols in New York Antonio Beneyto, 2003 A flaneur is a streetwise observer a stroller someone who rambles through a city without apparent purpose but feels tuned to the place and is constantly searching for adventure aesthetic and erotic In Codols in New York the Spanish writer Antonio Beneyto has created a protagonist a persona of Beneyto himself with a perspective reminiscent of the fin de siècle viewpoint of Baudelaire's French dandy and the obsessed Breton's surrealist flaneur A passionate observer whose immense pleasure is to take up residence in multiplicity Beneyto's flaneur feels at home in the crowd and finds himself at the center of everything in the city His flaneur like a rolling stone enters into the multitude as into an immense reservoir of electricity New York suits him well He immerses himself in the waves of the New York's crowds gathers impressions and records in words and drawings his sightings and experiences Ordinary beings urban sites and events rise to a myriad of versions of the city Beneyto takes pleasure everywhere Antonio Beneyto who visited New York for long periods in the 1980s and the mid 1990s wandered through the streets and avenues into parts of New York virtually unknown to visitors and indeed to many New Yorkers We meet street vendors hookers tourists businessmen musicians and all kind of peculiar characters including Woody Allen All are subjected to the artist's scrutiny to his sharp pen Beneyto visits cafés night clubs parks shoeshops pubs taverns restaurants museums monuments bookstores providing gossip and background to each site But his Codols is much more than an amusing kaleidoscope of the New York scene and the encounter with the unusual His wild poetic vignettes are testimonies of the inner human drama of the American society

The Whole Island Mark Weiss, 2009-11-25 Cuba's cultural influence throughout the Western Hemisphere and especially in the United States has been disproportionately large for so small a country This landmark volume is the first comprehensive overview of poetry written over the past sixty years Presented in a beautiful Spanish English en face edition The Whole Island makes available the astonishing achievement of a wide range of Cuban poets including such well known figures as Nicolás Guillén José Lezama Lima and Nancy Morejón but also poets widely read in Spanish who remain almost unknown to the English speaking world among them Fina García Marruz José Kozer Raúl Hernández Novás and Angel Escobar and poets born since the Revolution like Rogelio Saunders Omar Pérez Alessandra Molina and Javier Marín The translations almost all of them new convey the intensity and beauty of the accompanying Spanish originals With their work deeply rooted in Cuban culture many of these poets both on and off the island have been at the center of the political and social changes of this tempestuous period The poems offered here constitute an essential source for understanding the literature and culture of Cuba its diaspora and the Caribbean at large and provide an unparalleled perspective on what it means to be Cuban Agrotropolis J.T. Way, 2021-01-26 In Agrotropolis historian J T Way traces the developments of Guatemalan urbanization and youth culture since 1983 In case studies that bring together political economy popular music and everyday life Way explores the rise of urban space in towns seen as quintessentially rural and showcases grassroots cultural assertiveness In a post revolutionary era young people coming of age on the globally inflected city street used popular culture as one means of creating a new national imaginary that rejects Guatemala's racially coded system of castes Drawing on local sources deep ethnographies and the digital archive Agrotropolis places working class Maya and mestizo hometowns and creativity at the center of planetary urban history
