Standards-Based Leadership Sandra Harris, Julia Ballenger, Jason R. Mixon, 2016 Standards Based Leadership is written specifically for superintendents and is framed within the most recent national standards Professional Standards for Educational Leaders 2015 The cases provide an opportunity for superintendents as well as those in training to critically reflect on best practices with real scenarios Each chapter contains PSEL2015 standards best practice literature three cases discussion questions and additional resources The chapters have been written by educators with leadership and superintendent experience

Case Studies of the Superintendent of Schools and His Work Lucius Jerome Radtke, 1943 Superintendent Leadership , 2012 The purpose of these comparative case studies was to understand how superintendents in urban districts use reform strategies to leverage systemic change to improve student achievement The study focused on four effective superintendents of Broad Prize for Urban Education winning school districts It examined leadership traits core beliefs behaviors and actions leadership qualities and identified commonalities and differences amongst these nationally recognized superintendents The research questions provided a focus for evaluating the superintendent's selection of reform strategies the district context in which they were implemented and the influence of the superintendents background and experience The researcher gathered evidence by conducting individual interviews with each superintendent and members of his or her cabinet and by reviewing selected artifacts related to the districts demographics professional development practices reform initiatives and student performance data The researcher reviewed the data seeking common themes while watching for disproving evidence The central themes related to the leadership profiles of these effective superintendents were a longevity and breadth of service b providing focused professional development c building leadership capacity d utilizing data driven results monitoring data e differentiating resources f building relationships g hiring the right people h building strong board relations and i launching only a few highly focused and impacted initiatives These findings were consistent across all four superintendents The findings and conclusions from this study generated recommendations for practice and policy making and recommendations for future research in support of leading and improving schools for increased student achievement The recommendations are presented as they relate to specific areas of responsibility school and district administrators school board members and policymakers and superintendent preparation programs Recommendations from this study include having a strategic plan that is aligned with district goals and actions and supported by stakeholders hiring the right leadership team differentiating resources based on need hiring a highly qualified superintendent and providing mentors and coaches to aspiring administrators and superintendents Recommendations for future research include conducting additional case studies on the actions of other urban superintendents possibly including a discrepancy analysis to determine if struggling districts are implementing the successful strategies identified in these four Broad Prize winning districts examining effective superintendents who took a nontraditional path to the superintendency and a study of superintendents of large urban districts who are home grown and brought up through the system

The School Superintendent Theodore J. Kowalski,2006 The School Superintendent Theory Practice and Cases is both a textbook and reference for practitioners

Standards-Based Leadership Sandra Harris,Julia Ballenger,Jason Mixon,2015-05-06 Today s school principals are charged with the responsibility of creating learning organizations that emphasize success for all students Framing decisions in standards that are grounded in research and best practice this book provides a structure for learning and growth for both current and aspiring principals Each chapter in Standards Based Leadership A Case Study Book for the Principalship is organized around a Texas Principal Competency Exam and related to the 2014 Texas Principal Standards and 2011 ELCC standards The cases provided for discussion are all based on real problems that challenge principals in Texas or any other state By applying the standards and using the brief literature reviews as resources to guide decision making principals are provided with a framework for implementation of specific strategies that will best help them successfully lead schools

The Superintendent's Fieldbook Nelda Cambron-McCabe,2005 Much of what we know about how to be successful in our roles as superintendent is generally learned the hard way Having a resource to turn to in an effort to mitigate the trial and error nature of our approaches in dealing with the challenges of today s superintendency provides a compelling reason to pick up the book Howard Smith

Superintendent of Schools Public Schools of the Tarrytowns Sleepy Hollow NY New and current superintendents or prospective school leaders should read this book I think the authors tied in a lot of leadership theory and practices that would compliment individual styles of school superintendents Gina Segobiano Superintendent Signal Hill School District Belleville Illinois Learn how to navigate effectively through the new demands facing districts and schools The goals and challenges for district leaders are constantly changing Leadership and governance are only parts of the puzzle when other elements such as the NCLB legislation budgets standards and assessment changing demographics and public engagement are brought into the picture Today s superintendent needs an effective tool to help steer the school district to success Drawing on the experiences of nearly 200 superintendents over the past ten years The Superintendent s Fieldbook offers guidance that can be referenced again and again Written for current and future superintendents principals school board members and teachers this valuable guide is divided into nine sections each offering ideas to implement practical lessons exercises and questions for reflective practice The authors identify seven key commonplaces of the successful modern superintendent including Leading within a governance structure Understanding and addressing standards and assessment Considering race class and the achievement gap Developing your schools principals from building managers to leaders of learning Exploring collaborations with agencies of government and organizational allies Engaging your community to construct a shared vision of the future Vignettes describing real events and situations will help you connect lessons learned to your own district experiences and help you and your district thrive in the rapidly changing world of education Superintendent Succession Richard A. Sweeney, 2007
