Case For Change Rethinking The Preparation Of Educators:

The Case for Change Seymour B. Sarason, 1993-02-19 So many reformers talk about fundamental changes in schooling without understanding what such deep changes entail for children teachers and administrators Seymour Sarason does In his provocative mind bending and passionate style Sarason again argues against short term repairs of schools He seeks long term prevention and he sees the lever as John Goodlad did in the preparation of teachers Add this to your small library of wisdom about school reform Larry Cuban professor of education Stanford University
