

How to Survive a Shark Encounter

1. If you see a shark, avoid splashing or making wild movements; it tends to only attract their attention.

Do not play dead;
you'll be considered an easy meal.

2. Swim away from the shark calmly and quickly, keeping it in eyesight at all times.

3. If attacked, fight back aggressively by hitting the shark in the eyes, nose, and gills with your fists or on-hand equipment, like snorkels or dive gear.

4. Thrash violently if the shark takes hold of you. Fight like hell, hit anything you can reach, and keep moving until it lets go.
