

A historical map of Europe, likely from the 17th or 18th century, showing the continent's outline and internal borders. The map is rendered in a sepia or brownish tone. It features a grid of latitude and longitude lines. Various geographical features and regions are labeled in Latin, including 'OCEANUS' (Ocean), 'MARE' (Sea), 'BARBARIA' (Barbaria), and 'MAREM' (Mare). The map is centered on the European continent, with the Atlantic Ocean to the west and the Mediterranean Sea to the south. The title 'EU LAW' is prominently displayed in a dark purple box at the top center of the image.

Cases Materials On Eu Law 7e:

Cases, Materials and Text on Judicial Review of Administrative Action Chris Backes, Mariolina Eliantonio, 2019-08-08 This casebook studies the law governing judicial review of administrative action. It examines the foundations and the organisation of judicial review, the types of administrative action and corresponding kinds of review and access to court. Significant attention is also devoted to the conduct of the court proceedings, the grounds for review and the standard of review and the remedies available in judicial review cases. The relevant rules and case law of Germany, England and Wales, France and the Netherlands are analysed and compared. The similarities and differences between the legal systems are highlighted. The impact of the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights is considered as well as the influence of EU legislative initiatives and the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Union in the legal systems examined. Furthermore, the system of judicial review of administrative action before the European courts is studied and compared to that of the national legal systems. During the last decade, the growing influence of EU law on national procedural law has been increasingly recognised. However, the way in which national systems of judicial review address the requirements imposed by EU law differs substantially. The casebook compares the primary sources: legislation, case law, etc. of the legal systems covered and explores their differences and similarities. This examination reveals to what extent a ius commune of judicial review of administrative action is developing.

EU Law Paul Craig, Gráinne De Búrca, 2020 This version of the textbook is only available in the UK. If you are studying law outside of the UK, please see EU Law Text Cases and Materials ISBN 9780198856641. Building on its unrivalled reputation as the definitive EU law textbook, the seventh edition provides clear and comprehensive analysis of all aspects of European Union law. Drawing on their wealth of experience, Paul Craig and Gráinne de Búrca succeed in bringing together a unique mix of illuminating commentary and well-chosen extracts from a wide range of cases, legislation and academic publications. Chapters have been carefully structured and designed to enhance student learning at all levels, laying the foundations of the subject while building analysis of more complicated areas and cutting-edge debates. All chapters have been comprehensively updated to reflect the extensive legal developments that have taken place since the publication of the sixth edition, including a new chapter on Brexit and other challenges taking place within the EU. This UK version also includes sections at the end of relevant chapters covering how the principles apply or don't apply to the UK post-Brexit.

Online resources: The book is accompanied by online resources which include the following updates to the law post-publication: A timeline of key events in the development of the EU.

Cases, Materials and Text on National, Supranational and International Non-Discrimination Law Dagmar Schiek, Lisa Waddington, Mark Bell, 2007-08-24 The book illustrates the distinct relationship between international, European and national legislation in the field of non-discrimination law.

The Dynamics of Powers in the European Union Christina Eckes, Päivi Leino-Sandberg, Anna W. Ghavanini, 2024-09-19 Separation of powers is the time-tested touchstone of the legitimate exercise of power in modern democracies This collection examines decision making in the EU s multilayered and polycentric constitutional structure through this lens The focus on separation of powers reveals how strong executive powers collaborate in the EU as a single source of public power which is not sufficiently counterbalanced by parliaments or the judiciary The collection explores 3 policy fields marked by crisis the economic and monetary union EMU migration and trade Drawing on expertise from across these sectors with a strong conceptual thread linking all the contributions this important work illustrates how different branches of government co determine each others powers

Cheesy? How raw milk cheese made its way through the EU's legislative procedure like the village of indomitable Gauls Otto Möller,2017-08-22 Seminar paper from the year 2017 in the subject Politics Topic European Union grade 1 0 University of Kent Brussels School of International Studies course EU Politics and Governance class language English abstract This essay will examine the policy making process in the European Union EU concerning food safety in the case of raw milk cheese production Food safety has been a key concern of the EU after several food scandals at the end of the 90 s such as the mad cow disease or more recently the usage of falsely labeled horse meat As a reaction to that the focus shifted from the creation of a common food market to food safety The case of raw milk cheese is in so far an interesting one because it symbolizes a dilemma for the EU Firstly because the milk that is used for the production is untreated Untreated milk can be the cause of several diseases yet this kind of cheese is deeply rooted in the culture of especially southern European cuisine Secondly the common market aims to standardized products with the aim to create an even bigger more prosperous market and integrated market However the standardization takes place at the expense of product variety and the livelihood of small dairy farmers The challenging task for the union is to find a compromise between these driving factors
