the International Archives for the Women's Movement IAV in Amsterdam revealing its rootedness in Manus's radical secular Jewishness. Because the Nazis looted the IAV in 1940 including Manus's large personal archive and subsequently arrested her in 1941 and murdered her in 1942, Rosa Manus has been almost unknown to later generations. This collective biography offers essays based on new and in-depth research on pictures and documents from her archives returned to Amsterdam in 2003 as well as other primary sources. It thus restores Manus to the history from which the Nazis attempted to erase her. Contributors include Margot Badran, Mineke Bosch, Ellen Carol DuBois, Myriam Everard, Karen Garner, Francisca de Haan, Dagmar Wernitznig, and Annika Wilmers. The volume touches on all of the important themes of that history: the centrality of peace activism, the impact of the world wars and the rise of fascism, the tensions over imperialism and nationalist resistance in colonized countries, the importance of resources to the persistence of the movement, the vital glue of intimate relationships, and brings to the fore additional ones including the role of Jewish women, the centrality of Dutch feminists in transnational feminism, and the struggle over preserving the history of the movement. Leila J. Rupp, University of California, Santa Barbara, in Women's History Review 2018.
