strategic proximity of the Zaramo to Dar es Salaam Tanzania's biggest city and former capital influences of Islam and Christian missionaries colonial history and finally the socio-economic transformation of post-independence Tanzania. These involve examining the ways that art acts as a vehicle for the formation of individual group identity, how the two entities negotiate each other in the process of social and cultural change. This excellent book then is about the Zaramo and their figurative wood-carving tradition and it is written as an attempt to not only understand the origins, development and centrality of this figural carving tradition to the Zaramo but also the ways the Zaramo have used select sculptural objects to interpret change and continuity in the midst of modernization and social change.
