Case Of Mary Bell:

The Case of Mary Bell Gitta Sereny,1995 In December 1968 two girls who lived next door to each other Mary aged eleven and Norma thirteen stood before a criminal court in Newcastle accused of strangling two little boys Martin Brown four years old and Brian Howe three Norma was acquitted Mary Bell the younger but infinitely more sophisticated and cooler of the two was found guilty of manslaughter She evaded being branded as a murderer due to what the court ruled as diminished responsibility but she was sentenced to detention for life Step by step Gitta Sereny pieces together a gripping and rare study of a horrifying crime the murders the events surrounding them the alternately bizzare and nonchalant behaviour of the two girls their brazen offers to help the distraught families of the dead boys the police work that led to their apprehension and finally the trial itself What emerges from this extraordinary case is the inability of society to anticipate such events and to take adequate steps once disaster has struck

Case of Mary Bell Gitta SERENY,1995 The Case of Mary Bell Gitta Sereny,1972 In 1968 11 year old Mary Bell was found guilty of the manslaughter of two young boys This study asks why one child would murder another and provides the background to the Bell case The author also gives her account of the case of James Bulger now that the debate has tragically re opened The Mary Bell Case - the True Story Kate Smith Adams,2019-11-23 On the 25th of May 1968 a four year old boy named Martin Brown was playing outside with his friends in the Scotswood area of Newcastle Tragically this would be the last day of Martin s short life Martin was found upstairs on the floor in a derelict house by three children He was dribbling saliva from his mouth and looked inert On the 31st of July three year old Brian Howe was watching the demolition of houses in Scotswood He was never seen alive again Brian was found by the police just after 11 pm He was lying dead between two concrete blocks Some of his hair had been snipped off and there were puncture wounds on his legs and pressure marks on his nose The police reopened the investigation into the death of Martin Brown and eventually reached a shocking conclusion The serial killer responsible for these deaths was a pretty blue eyed eleven year old girl named Mary Bell It would become one of the strangest and most unfathomable cases in British criminal history But Mary Bell didn t come out of nowhere She was well known to the police and the authorities long before she became famous in the worst possible way Here then is the complete story of Mary Flora Bell The True Story Cries Unheard Gitta Sereny,2014-09-11 Renowned journalist and biographer Gitta Sereny covered the Mary Bell case in the 1960s and wrote about it at the time Mary then eleven was charged and subsequently convicted of the manslaughter of two younger boys Following Mary s release on licence and in collaboration with her Sereny provides a thought provoking biography of someone who was considered to have committed an evil crime of unparalleled horror She brilliantly delves into the mind of this complex and damaged human being and reveals how little was done to investigate Mary s own troubled circumstances A powerfully disturbing book it will resonate with all who read it
