Case Studies for Teacher Decision Making Gordon E. Greenwood, Forrest W. Parkay, 1989 Tough Choices for Teachers Robert Infantino, Robert L. Infantino, Rebecca Wilke, 2019 From lesson planning to instructional practice to classroom management, teachers must make choices constantly throughout their day. Sometimes these decisions are easy, but there are some decisions that are very difficult. As in other professions, challenging choices arise in education which could be detrimental to one's teaching career. Therefore, thoughtful decision making must be part of every educator's daily experience. Yet how can current and future teachers be equipped to make the best decisions in their fast-paced profession? In Tough Choices for Teachers Ethical Case Studies from Today's Schools and Classrooms, Robert Infantino and Rebecca Wilke help teachers and those working with educators to acquire practical skills to enhance their ethical decision-making processes. Instructional Decision Making in Middle Schools Deborah Lynn Sardo, 1986 Case Studies in Educational Psychology Patricia P. Willems, Alyssa R. Gonzalez-DeHass, 2017-12-06 This case study book serves as a valuable tool for professors and instructors of educational psychology. It contains 18 cases that represent current areas of interest in Educational Psychology embedded within current challenges that teachers face in today's elementary grade classrooms. The cases are organized into six major parts: Human Development, Individual Differences and Diversity, Learning Theories, Motivation, Classroom Management, Instructional Approaches, and Assessment and Evaluation. Each case describes a detailed teaching scenario written from either the student or the teacher's perspective. To engage students in critical thinking, perspective taking, analysis, problem solving, and decision making, the cases have been intentionally written without a conclusion. Because the cases are open-ended, it allows the professor or instructor more flexibility and autonomy in how they use the cases. Each case is followed by thought-provoking questions highlighting the significant issues in the case from which to analyze the case and apply various theoretical viewpoints While the cases do not replace actual classroom experience they present a way to immerse students in the classroom s culture by providing them with real life teaching examples Controversial Issues in the Classroom Mary Beth Wilson,1989 Teacher Decision-Making in the Classroom John Eggleston,2018-10-03 Making decisions is one of the main activities of the teacher s work Considered or apparently unconsidered these decisions significantly affect the lives of all who work in classrooms both children and the teachers themselves Originally published in 1979 the aim of this collection of papers was to achieve greater understanding of classroom decision making and its consequences to identify and map existing knowledge and to indicate where it might be augmented The contributors were researchers and teachers from schools universities and colleges at the time and they examine the process of teacher decision making from sociological psychological economic and other perspectives The book includes a detailed analysis of life in the classroom from a phenomenological perspective explorations based on micro economic techniques and structural perspectives on the role of the teacher in the school The concluding papers examine the possibilities for social change given the constraints on the work of the teacher Teachers Participation in Decision Making Chee-Too Lee,□□□,2017-01-27 This dissertation Teachers Participation in Decision Making a Case Study of a Local Private Secondary School by Chee too Lee was obtained from The University of Hong Kong Pokfulam Hong Kong and is being sold pursuant to Creative Commons Attribution 3 0 Hong Kong License The content of this dissertation has not been altered in any way We have altered the formatting in order to facilitate the ease of printing and reading of the dissertation All rights not granted by the above license are retained by the author DOI 10 5353 th_b3196104 Subjects School management and organization China Hong Kong Case studies Teacher participation in administration China Hong Kong Case studies Teacher participation in administration Case studies School management and organization Case studies A Study of Teacher Decision Making in Reading Classrooms Sandra Buike,1980 Resources in Education ,1994 Teacher Leader Stories Judy Swanson, Kimberly Elliott, Jeanne Harmon,2011-06-28 Empower teacher leaders through the power of case study Many teachers are looking for the training and support they need to become leaders Like having a conversation with a successful teacher leader this practical guide will help teachers strengthen their leadership skills optimize student learning and enhance the profession Research shows that case study is the most effective training method and this book provides 16 compelling case studies that cover a broad range of leadership experiences Explicit guidance on using case writing and case analysis to enrich teachers professional learning A facilitator s guide with discussion questions for each case study Professional Core Cases for Teacher Decision-making Gordon E. Greenwood,H. Thompson Fillmer,1997 A supplement for freshman graduate level courses in Educational Psychology Teaching Methods Classroom Management Human Growth and Development and Foundations of Education This collection of thirty thought provoking cases written in a familiar script screenplay dialogue format focuses on a broad range of problems and situations that both beginning and experienced teachers are likely to encounter in the classroom in the elementary middle and secondary grades. Firmly based on the realities of contemporary teaching, the cases were derived from two major sources: the professional knowledge and content commonalities of ten teacher certification exams from 47 of 50 states and a research review of the problems of beginning teachers. Educational Psychology Cases for Teacher Decision-making Gordon E.

Greenwood, H. Thompson Fillmer, 1999. Case material is presented mainly in dialogue format and cases are left open ended in order to provoke discussion analysis and decision making. Each case begins with a listing of psychological theories and sets of principles for analyzing and resolving the case. Provides other relevant material. Case Study Analysis in the Classroom Renee W. Campoy, 2005. Presented in an engaging and stimulating manner, this text provides beginning teachers a variety of typical classroom problems to analyze and solve. Curriculum in the Making

Rebecca Killen Hawthorne, 1992-01-01. Challenging the current assumption in the educational reform movement that simply mandating curriculum top down will alter classroom practice, the author instead focuses on case studies of four English teachers and the role of teacher values, beliefs, experience, and expertise as a primary determinant for curriculum and how these decisions in turn affect what and how students learn. Embedding her thesis and case studies in current research on teacher decision making and secondary school reform, the author addresses the struggle between personal and professional autonomy and obligations to school administration and mandated curricula. Case Studies for Teachers of Religion

Goodwin Watson, Gladys H. Watson, 1926. Teaching in Today's Classrooms George Redman, 1999. This text contains brief teaching cases from middle and secondary classrooms grouped by theme to be used as a supplement in middle and secondary methods and curriculum courses. The cases in this collection are problem based, engaging stories of authentic classroom situations. Because the situations are generic, they are relevant to teachers and prospective teachers in grades 6-12 throughout the full range of subject matter areas. The approach of the text is to invite prospective teachers to become active inquirers in their study of teaching.
