Casebook Oral Sex Techniques:

The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1985      The Oral Sex Casebook James Lee Brown, 1970      DSM-four-TR Casebook Robert L. Spitzer, 2006

The groundbreaking DSM IV TR R Casebook Volume 2 Experts Tell How They Treated Their Own Patients is unique among casebooks in that the experts here describe their own treatment of interesting cases from their own practices. A remarkable 53 contributors whose cases represent the full range of psychological, psychosocial, and pharmacological treatment approaches include in their case studies a summary of the patient's presenting symptoms and problems, history of present illness and past history, the expert's differential diagnosis and reasons for choosing a particular therapy, their initial treatment goals, how they explained the treatment to the patient and the patient's reaction, what actually went on in the sessions, the expert's thoughts and feelings during the treatment process, and how the patient changed over time. DSM IV TR R Casebook Volume 2 Experts Tell How They Treated Their Own Patients is simply the essential casebook for mental health care students, residents, educators, and professionals everywhere.

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973      Casebook of Psychological Disorders Steven Schwartzberg, 2000

This casebook offers fifteen lively cases that illustrate a wide range of specific DSM IV diagnoses covered in the abnormal psychology course. These cases integrate issues of racial and gender diversity and provide insight into the lives of people suffering from a variety of psychological disorders, highlighting how psychological distress is experienced and treated in real life. Each case follows a similar pattern to aid reader comprehension. An Introduction describes the problems in the person's life or the catalyst bringing him or her into therapy. A Psychosocial History offers childhood and other relevant background data to provide a context for the disorder. The Conceptualization section offers the rationale for the diagnosis and the Treatment section then outlines the appropriate psychotherapy as well as any other treatments such as medication or group therapy. The Discussion section highlights interesting aspects of the case, presents relevant research, and examines various theoretical perspectives on treatment. Finally, the Prognosis section covers reasonable expectations of what the future might hold for this person. Critical Thinking Questions are posed at the end of each chapter. Gender and cultural diversity are highlighted among both clients and psychotherapists, with important cultural issues woven throughout the cases. The cases themselves feature people from a variety of backgrounds and heritages; the impact of sociocultural factors on the experience or prevalence of a disorder is often discussed, as well as how treatment is affected when the client and therapist come from different ethnic backgrounds. This casebook also features diverse theoretical orientations that drive treatment. Treatment outcomes are diverse and realistic and span from short to long term. Most are designed as ideal interventions, but some are influenced by economic concerns and changing models of available services. For anyone interested in abnormal psychology.

Casebook in Abnormal Psychology Timothy A. Brown, David H. Barlow, 1997

Using cases taken from the authors' case files or from case files of other working clinicians, this casebook portrays the rich and arresting nature of disorders as they are displayed in real people Cases illustrate every major DSM IV category and are followed by a therapy outcome section which gives the rest of the story of what happened to these clients The authors draw on an extremely current and thorough database look at the multiple causes of disorders and incorporate developmental and cultural issues in each case Two complex cases are included without a diagnosis to give students an opportunity to come up with diagnoses on their own The cases are designed to give students an appreciation for the complexity of the diagnostic process

The Asian Marketing Casebook Noel Capon, Wilfried R. Vanhonacker, 1999 Ideal for courses in International Marketing at the undergraduate and graduate levels This marketing casebook demonstrates the diversity of marketing problems faced by organizations operating in Asia The cases focus on industrial and consumer marketing issues and cover 16 countries

Psychopathology, a Case Book Robert L. Spitzer, 1983
