Australia Through Time ,2004 Australia's Lost World Michael Archer,Suzanne Hand,Suzanne J. Hand,Henk Godthelp,2000 In Queensland in northeast Australia lies one of the most significant fossil deposits in the world Riversleigh Here the remains of many thousands of weird and wonderful prehistoric animals have been superbly preserved in the limestone outcrops There are marsupial lions carnivorous kangaroos 23 foot long pythons primitive platypuses and early ancestors of the now extinct Tasmanian tiger So important is this site to our understanding of what has happened to Australia and its living cargo over the last 25 million years that Riversleigh has been inscribed on the World Heritage List Michael Archer Suzanne J Hand and Henk Godthelp the principal scientists on a remarkable excavation since 1976 explain the vast environmental and geographic changes that have occurred in this area since Australia broke away from the supercontinent of Gondwana and how the animals on board this continental raft evolved through the ages Photographs and evocative artwork bring to life the teeming tropical world that once existed in the now arid wastes of Riversleigh and the authors discuss some of the unusual techniques used on a dig They describe how to recognize fossils how to date them and how to reconstruct extinct animals from them Originally published as Riversleigh The Story of Animals in Ancient Rainforests of Inland Australia this award winning book is being issued for the first time in the United States Evolution and Dynamics of the Australian Plate R. R. Hillis,R. D. Müller,2003-01-01 Continent Formation Through Time N.M.W. Roberts,M. van Kranendonk,S. Parman,S. Shirey,P.D. Clift ,2015-02-16 The continental crust is our archive of Earth history and the store of many natural resources however many key questions about its formation and evolution remain debated and unresolved What processes are involved in the formation differentiation and evolution of continental crust and how have these changed throughout Earth history How are plate tectonics the supercontinent cycle and mantle cooling linked with crustal evolution What are the rates of generation and destruction of the continental crust through time How representative is the preserved geological record A range of approaches are used to address these questions including field based studies petrology and geochemistry geophysical methods palaeomagnetism whole rock and accessory phase isotope chemistry and geochronology Case studies range from the Eoarchean to Phanerozoic and cover many different cratons and orogenic belts from across the continents

Crime Over Time Robyn Lincoln, 2010-08-11 Crime Over Time features original contributions from some of Australia's most respected criminologists and historians The book marries these two disciplines to offer a unique examination of crime and deviance over more than 200 years of Anglo Australian history This innovative compilation explores the intriguing ways in which Australian crime has evolved and the pioneering ways criminal justice agencies have dealt with offenders The topics investigated range from colonial bushranging to terrorist attacks along with emerging forms of criminal activity such as cybercrime The book also highlights the social construction of crime by using case studies including the way that homosexual activity was policed in earlier times The collection provides an engaging and thorough examination of the historical factors that have shaped crime and punishment and its contemporary context

Australia Through Time 2007 Mason Clarke, Samuelson, 2007 Australia Through Time presents a fascinating and comprehensive history of Australia It takes a year by year approach with plenty of images fact files quotes and charts to illustrate the notable events that shaped our nation It is the ideal at a glance reference for anyone keen to have an on going record of our unique story Included in this new edition is the rescue of Brant Webb and Todd Russell from the Beaconsfield mine the passing away of wildlife warrior Steve Irwin 50 years of Australian television the skyrocketing prices of bananas and the marriage of Nicole Kidman to Keith Urban in Sydney Book cover

Decolonising Australian History Education Rebecca Cairns, Aleryk Fricker, Sara Weuffen, 2024-06-25 This book is the first of its kind to showcase a range of fresh and expert perspectives on decolonising history education in Australia The research informed chapters by First Nations and non Indigenous educators and scholars provide guidance on applying practical strategies for decolonising learning and teaching and moving beyond the history wars History has long been the most contentious area of education in Australia This book tackles the narrow and overtly politicised history wars debates and foregrounds the need to re examine impacts of settler colonialism on Australia's history First hand knowledge and much needed teaching practices are presented demonstrating how decolonisation can be put into action through Australian history education The chapters present a range of perspectives from the early years right through to higher education settings and argues that there is an increased need for greater awareness appreciation and willingness to explore and engage with multiple narratives of truth telling that are so often contested Readers are guided to discover how this translates to classroom practice through unique provocative and research informed strategies that foreground applied decolonising approaches Combining theoretical perspectives and practical ideas this book is an essential resource to support pre and in service teachers in all education contexts in navigating the decolonisation of Australian history education This makes it an important contribution to local as well as global decolonising efforts Australian Dictionary of Dates and Men of the Time J.
