Australian Architecture Now Davina Jackson,Chris Johnson,2000 Having just completed the most significant five year construction phase in the nation s history Australian architecture has moved into the world spotlight During the 1994 99 boom creative vigor was palpable confidence surged and the entire continent became endowed with a new sense of architectural independence Because it scans a diverse and momentary scene instead of recording a longer continuum of major achievements Australian Architecture Now is an unusual history book It presents two essays 21 case studies of outstanding public and domestic projects and in several brief chapters compares selected buildings according to similarities of either genre or style Close examination reveals surprising evidence that Australian architecture more often reflects the personal styles and attitudes of its creators than the poetic ideal of a unique sense of place Architects featured include Denton Corker Marshall Harry Seidler Gabriel Poole Rex Addison Peter Stutchbury Cox Sanderson Ness Nonda Katsalidis Sean Godsell Alexander Tzannes and more

New Australian Style John Gollings,George Michell,1999 As the 2000 Olympics in Sydney draw near the rest of the world has begun to take notice of the stylistic revolution going on down under New Australian Style showcases more than 50 exemplary houses apartments and commercial buildings in a tour of the Australian continent and its varied lifestyles that covers four distinct environments City Suburb Beach and Bush From renovated Victorians in Sydney's city center and converted warehouses in Melbourne to breezy beach houses on magnificent coastlines and bushland retreats in dense eucalyptus forests the new look of Australia is at once familiar and exotic Here traditional materials such as mud brick local timber and corrugated iron are juxtaposed with modernist architectural details making for an amazing variety in building design and execution With over 250 color photographs of interiors and exteriors New Australian Style offers a timely picture of the gracious sophisticated style that's sprung up in this vital nation

Energy Efficient Australian Housing Australia. Department of Transport and Construction, 1985      Art Deco House Style Ingrid Cranfield, 2001 Discover how to recreate and restore authentic period architecture furnishings and detailing in the Art Deco style Filled with practical advice and sources of materials and much additional related information this is not only for those who wish to restore their homes to their original style but is also a comprehensive fascinating work of reference

Designer Suburbs Judith O'Callaghan, Charles Pickett, 2012-11-01 In the 1950s 60s and 70s architects like Harry Seidler Robin Boyd Ken Woolley Michael Dysart and Graeme Gunn applied their talents to project homes bringing high end design to the suburbs Backed by Pettit Sevitt Merchant Builders and other project builders architects created small deceptively simple houses which transformed the look of suburbia Today the distance between the architectural profession and suburban housing has never been greater with Australia's super sized energy guzzling project homes the biggest in the world With photographs by Max Dupain David Moore Wolfgang Sievers and Eric Sierins alongside original plans Designer Suburbs explores the relationship between architects builders and affordable housing since 1900 and the lessons we can learn from twentieth century designer suburbs

The Oxford Companion to Australian Folklore Gwenda Davey, Graham Seal, 1993 One of the best ways to ascertain a nation's character is to examine its informal or unofficial culture its folklore Australians sense of nationality is defined not merely in relation to the places they inhabit and the careers they pursue but also via the slang and languages they speak the jokes and yarns they exchange the objects they make the way they behave towards one another and the games they play As Australia approaches the centenary of Federation it is timely that questions should be asked about the nature of the Australian identity in a changing urbanized multicultural society The Oxford Companion to Australian Folklore addresses these questions and illustrates the range and importance of Australia's folkloric heritage Some of Australia's best known writers folklorists and academics have contributed articles to the Companion Entries range from the descriptive Gumleaf playing to the analytical Popular culture and folklore from country halls to graffiti to archival preservation of audio tapes from the bunyip to rebetika Greek blues from chain letters to patchwork quilts and Wagga rugs Also included are biographies of notables in the folklore field and short entries on myths and heroes such as Ned Kelly Henry Lawson The Wild Colonial Boy and The Dog on the Tucker Box Many entries contain references for those wishing to read further on a particular topic and an appendix supplies bibliographic guidance for researchers Until recently Australia was one of the few countries in the world that tended to disregard the collection preservation study and recognition of its folk heritage and its contemporary folklore As well as being an invaluable reference for students families and cultural historians

The Oxford Companion to Australian Folklore is a milestone in the scholarship of Australian folklore 50/60/70 Iconic Australian Houses Karen McCartney,2007 From the 1950s to the 1970s the work of Lloyd Wright Gropius and van der Rohe strongly influenced a generation of young Australian architects who adopted modernist principles in their work Karen McCartney has compiled 15 significant examples each by a different architect of homes that combine outstanding architectural principles and an authentic interior decor A comprehensive introduction places the movement in social historical and architectural context before each of the selected homes is discussed in detail in an informed engaging essay style The relationship of architect owner is discussed as are the linking of the building to its site materials and architectural detailing The author has interviewed many architects and owners for their personal insights Each study includes a feature on the interior decoration and a discussion of designers and manufacturers of iconic furniture fabrics etc Ken Woolley Ken
