Australia's First Fabians:

Australia's First Fabians Race Mathews, 1993-01-01 Many of Australia's first Fabians are known as legislators, priests, jurists, men and women of letters, diplomats, feminists and educators, yet few are recognised as Fabians. Until this book, little attention has been given to Australian Fabian thinkers, activists and organisations, and their long-term influence on Australian political and intellectual life. This book recreates the lives of the first Fabians in Australia, their political ideas and strategies, and presents their visions for society in a lively and entertaining way. It also explores the similarities between the Fabian Society's development in Britain and Australia. The book will fill a long-standing gap in Australian intellectual history and the history of early socialist movements in Australia. Rediscovering the British World Phillip Alfred Buckner, R. Douglas Francis, 2005 Rediscovering the British World is one part of an ongoing attempt to approach British Imperial history from a different viewpoint, placing the colonies of settlement at the centre. Editors Phillip Buckner and Douglas Francis have included nineteen essays from expert scholars in the field which cover a broad range of cultural, social and intellectual topics in British imperial history from the mid-nineteenth to the mid-twentieth century. The essays focus on the history of Britain and the Empire, with considerable emphasis on the self-governing dominions of Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand. They attempt to show the centrality of the Empire in the history of the nations created by the British diaspora overseas, while at the same time calling into question the extent of the existence of a British World. The goal is not to wax nostalgic, but rather to re-examine the complex phenomenon of this far-reaching empire and to shed light on the ways in which it has shaped our world. With contributions by James Belich, Frank Bongiorno, Bettina Bradbury, Patrick H. Brennan, Phillip Buckner, Elizabeth Elbourne, R. Douglas Francis, Jeffrey Grey, Catherine Hall, John Lambert, Douglas Lorimer, David Lowe, Stuart Macintyre, Adele Perry, Paul Pickering, Satadru Sen, R. Scott Sheffield, Paul Ward, Stuart Ward, Wendy Webster. Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2-volume work includes approximately 1,200 entries in A-Z order, critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory. In addition, nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines: political economy, management and business, human geography, politics, sociology, law, psychology, organizational behavior, and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense. The State in New Zealand, 1840-198 Michael Bassett, 2013-11-01 In this innovative study, Michael Bassett, historian and former politician, explores how and why the state became such an active and interventionist player in New Zealand, life, developing, subsidising and regulating the economy, and protecting citizens from the cradle to the grave. He looks in detail at the many schemes in which a paternalistic government became involved, especially the extensive social programmes. These were taken for granted by the people, but from the 1960s were increasingly difficult to sustain economically. By 1984, he concludes, this process of intervention had to be slowed. Drawing on departmental archives, many not previously consulted by historians, The State in New Zealand covers in a new way, and with clarity and style, a subject of great contemporary interest. Australia's

First Fabians 1890-1910 Race Mathews,198? History For A Nation Stuart Macintyre,2016-10-18 There is a common belief that Australia acquired history only when it grew up and threw off its colonial origins after the Second World War Yet earlier generations of Australians created their own histories to express their sense of who they were and what they might be This book reveals that the quest for an Australian past found its way into our universities and schools from the early years of the Commonwealth Ernest Scott was the most prolific teacher and writer of history in inter war Australia A self taught degreeless professor he laid the foundations of a historical profession in this country and wrote the textbook that taught generations of schoolchildren the meaning of Australian history An Englishman and an imperialist active in public affairs he trained Australians to understand their colonial past as a guide to nationhood At the time when Australians debate their nationhood Asianisation and the republic A History for a Nation recalls a lost culture of urgent contemporary significance

Australia Frank Welsh,2006 Australia A New History of the Great Southern Land is a major new account that places Australia s history fully within a global context drawing on sources from the United States Britain South Africa and Canada as well as within Australia itself In a compelling narrative acclaimed historian Frank Welsh traces the history of the land from scattered convict settlements to the formation of the Commonwealth of Australia in 1901 and on to today s thriving independent nation exposing many national myths in the process This book also explores the dark side of Australia s history the long continued White Australia policy which bedeviled foreign policy for more than a century the still tortured official relationship with the Aboriginal peoples the subordination of women and the flaws in the constitution Also examined is Australia s uneasy relationship with its Asian neighbors and its isolation from Britain and the United States its traditional allies Original provocative and witty Australia is the most comprehensive single volume history of Australia yet published It makes a strong claim to becoming the standard work on this fascinating and often misunderstood country Book jacket
