Australia's Gulf Country:

Mixed Race Identities in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands Farida Fozdar, Kirsten McGavin, 2016-12-08 This volume offers a southern Pacific Ocean perspective on the topic of racial hybridity exploring it through a series of case studies from around the Australo Pacific region a region unique as a result of its very particular colonial histories Focusing on the interaction between race and culture especially in terms of visibility and self defined identity and the particular characteristics of political cultural and social formations in the countries of this region the book explores the complexity of the lived mixed race experience the structural forces of particular colonial and post colonial environments and political regimes and historical influences on contemporary identities and cultural expressions of mixedness

Australia's Savannah Way Dick Eussen, 2007 This book is a definitive guide to one of the most beautiful well travelled famous routes through the Australian outback country Savannah Way stretches 3 500 km coast to coast from Cairns in Queensland to Broome in Western Australia covering a myriad of different vistas as it gives access to four World Heritage Regions over 15 national parks and reserves and the entire remote tropical wilderness of Australia book jacket

The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea Ian J. McNiven, Bruno David, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of Indigenous Australia and New Guinea reviews and brings together the latest findings on the archaeology of the Australia New Guinea region In 42 new chapters commissioned for this book 77 leading researchers present the archaeological evidence for Australia and New Guinea's deep time history The stories told reveal the astounding richness of Australia and New Guinea's Indigenous cultural history stories of tens of thousands of years of Aboriginal Torres Strait Islander and New Guinean adaptation cultural know how and creative ingenuity

Aboriginal Art and Australian Racial Hegemony Abraham Bradfield, 2023-07-31 This book explores the complexities of Indigenous and non Indigenous relations in contemporary Australia It unpacks the continuation of a pervasive colonial consciousness within settler colonial settings but also provokes readers to confront their own habits of thought and action Through presenting a reflexive narrative that draws on the author's encounters with Indigenous artists and their artwork knowledge stories and lived experiences this provocative and insightful work encourages readers to consider what decolonising means to them It presents a compelling and relevant argument that calls for a reorientation of dominant discourses fixed within Eurocentric frameworks whilst also addressing the deep complexities and challenges of living within intercultural settler colonial settings where different views and perspectives clash and complement one another

What Now Cameo Dalley, 2020-10-06 Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork undertaken since 2006 the book addresses some of the most topical aspects of remote Aboriginal life in Australia This includes the role of kinship and family relationships to land and sea and cross cultural relations with non Aboriginal residents There is also extensive treatment of contemporary issues relating to alcohol consumption violence and the impact of systemic ill health This richly detailed portrayal provides a nuanced account of
