Kundera and the Ambiguity of Authorship Christine Angela Knoop, 2011 The scholarly debate about authorship has not only transcended all aspects of literary studies but has also prompted contemporary authors to counter subvert and challenge it One author to whom this applies in particular is Milan Kundera In this study Christine Knoop re examines Kundera's essayistic and novelistic work against the background of the theoretical paradigms of literary authority intention and ownership In so doing she demonstrates how he overcomes traditional theoretical distinctions by postulating the existence of both a strong powerful author figure and of potentially boundless literary meaning Kundera's radically ambiguous conception of the author in the novel developed primarily to influence the reader is discussed and developed to cast new light on the critical debate about authorship at large while maintaining his primary conjecture that authorship as such is perpetually hybrid dynamic and unfinished Christine Angela Knoop is a Postdoctoral Research Associate for Comparative Literature at Freie Universitat Berlin

Krishna Sobti's Views on Literature and the Poetics of Writing Rosine-Alice Vuille, 2022-10-03 How does a writer discuss her creative process and her views on a writer's role in society How do her comments on writing relate to her works The Hindi writer Krishna Sobti 1925-2019 is known primarily as a novelist However she also extensively wrote about her views on the creative process the figure of the writer historical writing and the position of writers within the public sphere This study is the first to examine in detail the relationship between Sobti's views on poetics as exposed in her non-fictional texts and her own literary practice The writer's self representation is analysed through her use of metaphors to explain her creative process Sobti's construction of the figure of the writer is then put in parallel with her idiosyncratic use of language as a representation of the heterogeneous voices of her characters and with her conception of literature as a space where time and memory can be held At the same time by delving into Sobti's position in the debate around women's writing especially through the creation of a male double the failed writer Hashmat and into her views on literature and politics this book also reflects on the literary debates of the post Independence Hindi literary sphere
