Britain was the first country to formulate a coordinated global response to communist propaganda. In January 1948 the British government launched a new propaganda policy designed to oppose the inroads of communism by taking the offensive against it. A small section in the Foreign Office, the innocuously titled Information Research Department (IRD), was established to collate information on communist policy, tactics, and propaganda and coordinate the discreet dissemination of counter-propaganda to opinion formers at home and abroad.

Auto Da Fay Fay Weldon, 2002. Fay Weldon's writing career has never been predictable or conventional, and her much-anticipated autobiography is no exception. In Auto Da Fay, Weldon doesn't actually set fire to herself, but the scourge is there. She brings a skeptical and self-critical eye to her life and times. Honesty is not the half of it. She writes brilliantly about her upbringing in New Zealand in a household of women, surviving the Second World War in England, university at St Andrews, life as a copywriter in London, various relationships and marriages, children, and living in the countryside, and much, much more. Auto Da Fay is a book of wit, wisdom, sadness, and happiness. Fans of Fay Weldon will be enthralled, and newcomers to her work will be intrigued. Fay Weldon is one of the world's best-known and loved writers. She has published 25 novels, including The Life and Loves of a She-Devil and most recently The Bulgari Connection, which stirred up plenty of controversy.
