Autobiographical Writings Of Hermann Hesse:

Autobiographical Writings [of] Hermann Hesse Hermann Hesse, 1975 Autobiographical Writings Hermann Hesse, Theodore Ziolkowski, Denver Lindley, 1975 Hermann Hesse Ralph Freedman, 1978 Hermann Hesse's Fictions of the Self Eugene L. Stelzig, 2014-07-14 This masterful synthesis of criticism and biography surveys all of Hermann Hesse's major works and many of his minor ones in relation to the intricate psychological design of his entire life history Eugene Stelzig examines what it means to be an autobiographical writer by considering Hesse's fictions of the self as an exemplary instance of the relationship between life and art and between biography and autobiography In a graceful and inviting style he frees this major confessional writer from the confines of German culture and the status of cult figure of the 1960s and situates him in the tradition of world literature and in a variety of literary psychological philosophical and religious contexts Three introductory chapters on autobiography and Hesse set the stage for a chronological study Then follows a penetrating analysis of the balance between biographical fact and confessional fantasy in Hesse's long career from the failed autobiography of his first literary success Beneath the Wheel through the protracted midlife crisis of the grotesque Steppenwolf period to the visionary autobiography of his magisterial fictional finale The Glass Bead Game Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Hermann Hesse Mark Boulby, 2020-06-30 Analyzes Hesse's major novels comments on many of his short stories and considers his critical and autobiographical writings Confessions of a Yiddish Writer and Other Essays Chava Rosenfarb, 2019-06-11 Chava Rosenfarb 1923-2011 was one of the most prominent Yiddish novelists of the second half of the twentieth century Born in Poland in 1923 she survived the Lodz ghetto Auschwitz and Bergen Belsen immigrating to Canada in 1950 and settling in Montreal There she wrote novels poetry short stories plays and essays including The Tree of Life A Trilogy of Life in the Lodz Ghetto a seminal novel on the Holocaust Confessions of a Yiddish Writer and Other Essays comprises thirteen personal and literary essays by Rosenfarb ranging from autobiographical accounts of her childhood and experiences before and during the Holocaust to literary criticism that discusses the work of other Jewish writers The collection also includes two travelogues which recount a trip to Australia and another to Prague in 1993 the year it became the capital of the Czech Republic While several of these essays appeared in the prestigious Yiddish literary journal Di goldene keyt most were never translated This book marks the first time that Rosenfarb's non-fiction writings have been presented together in English A compilation of the memoir and diary excerpts that formed the basis of Rosenfarb's widely acclaimed fiction Confessions of a Yiddish Writer and Other Essays deepens the reader's understanding of an incredible Yiddish woman and her experiences as a survivor in the post Holocaust world The Artist and Political Vision Benjamin R. Barber, Michael J. Gargas McGrath, Art and politics are often regarded as denizens of different realms but few artists have been comfortable with the notion of a purely aesthetic definition of art The artist has a public and thus political vision of the world interpreted by his art no less than the statesman and the legislator have a creative vision of the world they wish to make The sixteen original essays in this volume bear eloquent witness to this interpenetration of art and politics Each confronts the intersection of the aesthetic and the social each is concerned with the interface of poetic vision and political vision of reflection and action They take art in the broadest sense ranging over poets dramatists novelists essayists and filmmakers Their focus is on art and its political dilemmas not simply on the artist They consider the issues raised for politics and culture by alienation violence modernization technology democracy progress and revolution And they debate the capacity of art to stimulate social change and incite revolution the temptations of social control of culture and of political censorship the uncertain relationship between art and history the impact of economic structure on artistic creation and of economic class on artistic product the common ground between art and legislation and between creativity and control

Conceptions of Happiness Ignacio L. Götz, 2009-12-08 Conceptions of Happiness Revised Edition presents the thesis that happiness does not mean just one thing but many and that these many meanings have been studied described argued and practiced throughout the centuries in many climes and places When asked if one is happy people answer according to their own conception of happiness Their conception may differ from that of the interrogator who may not be unaware of this fact People may also deem themselves happy differently at different times in their lives depending upon their circumstances and on their own estimate of themselves Therefore to think that there is just one meaning of happiness spanning a lifetime does not correspond to the facts of life as we know and experience them This book presents many views of happiness as espoused by their original founders and developers

The Gilded Chalet Pdraig Rooney, 2016-09-27 Part detective work part treasure chest full of history and scandal The Gilded Chalet takes you on a grand tour of two centuries of great writing by both Swiss and foreign authors and shows how Switzerland has always been at the center of literary Europe Two centuries after the Romantics went there to invent Gothic horror the lure of Switzerland hasn't left us Writers from the Fitzgeralds to Fleming Highsmith to Hemingway Conan Doyle to le Carr came to escape world wars political persecution tuberculosis They came for sanctuary from oppression or the tax man for fresh air and nude sunbathing for scenery resembling as Rooney puts it Mother Nature on steroids Patricia Highsmith spent her last years in a granite home in Ticino with a fridge containing little but peanut butter and vodka Hermann Hesse had himself buried to the neck as a cure for alcoholism Nabokov chased butterflies and played tennis on the hotel courts When it comes to literature it seems all roads lead to Switzerland Pdraig Rooney peers through the chalet windows and discovers how Switzerland has influenced some of the greatest authors and characters of literature The Literary Criterion, 1987 The

New York Times Book Review ,1972 Exploring Jupiter: Astrological Key to Progress, Prosperity & Potential Stephen Arroyo,2025-03-01 This book is the very essence of Jupiter From its apt title to its generous use of many famous chart examples to Arroyo s trademark insight and wisdom on every page Exploring Jupiter is positively a winner The presentation of the astrology is clear practical and intelligent making it a must for both newer students and more experienced practising astrologers Unlike the majority of modern astrologers Arroyo refers to Jupiter s ancient rulership of Pisces as being significant The book includes Jupiter through the signs Jupiter through the houses arranged by element Jupiter aspects in the birth chart and so on As always with Stephen Arroyo it is the clarity and profound depth of these guidelines for interpretation that is so striking The chapter on transits involving Jupiter is particularly good building on ideas he has expressed in earlier writings The Scope of the Fantastic--culture, Biography, Themes, Children's Literature : Selected Essays from the First International Conference on the Fantastic in Literature and Film Robert A. Collins,Howard D. Pearce,1985 Proteus ,1991 Stand Magazine , Stand ,1972 The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library,1988 The Writers Directory ,2013 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979 Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Ralph Ellison-Jamake Highwater ,2000
