Autobiographical Sketches I am so often asked for references to some pamphlet or journal in which may be found some outline of my life and the enquiries are so often couched in terms of such real kindness that I have resolved to pen a few brief autobiographical sketches which may avail to satisfy friendly questioners and to serve in some measure as defence against unfair attack On October 1st 1847 I made my appearance in this vale of tears little Pheasantina as I was irreverently called by a giddy aunt a pet sister of my mother's Just at that time my father and mother were staying within the boundaries of the City of London so that I was born well within the sound of Bow bells Though born in London however full three quarters of my blood are Irish My dear mother was a Morris the spelling of the name having been changed from Maurice some five generations back and I have often heard her tell a quaint story illustrative of that family pride which is so common a feature of a decayed Irish family She was one of a large family and her father and mother gay handsome and extravagant had wasted merrily what remained to them of patrimony I can remember her father well for I was fourteen years of age when he died A bent old man with hair like driven snow splendidly handsome in his old age hot tempered to passion at the lightest provocation loving and wrath in quick succession About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Autobiographic Sketches Thomas De Quincey,1871 "In Christ's Stead" Joanna P. Moore,1902 Because of the comfort and help it has given to the neglected little ones of earth I have never been a wife or mother Now no true woman can say this without an undertone of regret and yet ever since the time I rocked the cradle for my little brothers and sisters until to day the sunny face of childhood and the loving touch of little fingers be they dark or fair have kept the mother love alive in my heart But the children I saw were too many to be gathered into one mother heart therefore God gave help through this blessed Society which during its twenty five years has sent forth a thousand women with the love and patience of true motherhood and these have saved a multitude of children of all races from a life of sin and for a life of usefulness on earth and a home in heaven This service alone secures for the Society the gratitude of the whole nation and with the nation I lay down my little tribute of love The help given to the children comforts me most but it is only one of the many streams of blessings that the Society has sent flowing through barren lands in the United States Cuba Porto Rico and Mexico causing them to blossom as the rose We do not forget that God is the real source of all supplies but He has used the prayers and careful gleanings of our Baptist motherhood and their children to accomplish this great work during the last twenty five years and that He may grant them still greater zeal faith and love for the service of the next twenty five years or until Jesus comes is the prayer of the author      Autobiographical Sketches Besant Annie,2016-06-20 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
