Autobiography Of A Brown Buffalo:

Autobiography of a Brown Buffalo Oscar Zeta Acosta, 2013-02-06 Before his mysterious disappearance and probable death in 1971 Oscar Zeta Acosta was famous as a Robin Hood Chicano lawyer and notorious as the real life model for Hunter S Thompson's Dr Gonzo a fat pugnacious attorney with a gargantuan appetite for food drugs and life on the edge Written with uninhibited candor and manic energy this book is Acosta's own account of coming of age as a Chicano in the psychedelic sixties of taking on impossible cases while breaking all the rules of courtroom conduct and of scrambling headlong in search of a personal and cultural identity It is a landmark of contemporary Hispanic American literature at once ribald surreal and unmistakably authentic

STAVANS ACOSTA (ILAN.), Ilan Stavans, 2018-11-15 Most famously depicted as the 300 pound pill popping Samoan attorney in Hunter S Thompson's Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas Oscar Zeta Acosta's wild moving first book originally published in 1972 reveals a man of astonishing variety A converted Baptist missionary in Panama bar hopper psychiatric patient struggling writer heartbroken lover great imposter connoisseur of excess Chicano activist Brown Buffalo Acosta did it all then disappeared like a puff of smoke off the coast of Mazatlan Mexico in the spring of 1974

Bodies Out of Bounds Jana Evans Braziel, Kathleen LeBesco, 2001-09-13 This is an exceptional collection the subject is of obvious importance yet terribly undertheorized and unexamined I know of no other work that offers what this collection provides Marcia Millman author of Such a Pretty Face Being Fat in America A valuable contribution to scholarly debates on the place of excessive bodies in contemporary culture This book promises to enrich all areas of inquiry related to the politics of bodies Carole Spitzack author of Confessing Excess Women and the Politics of Body Reduction This anthology includes a wide range of perceptive and original essays which explore and analyze the underlying ideologies that have made fat incorrect Echoing the spirit of the nineteenth century adage about children who should be neither seen nor heard some of the authors powerfully remind us that we keep bodies out of bound silenced and unseen unless of course we need to peek at the comic or grotesque Raquel Salgado Scherr co author of Face Value The Politics of Beauty Through textual analyses video film analyses television theory and literary theory this collection demonstrates the various ways in which dominant representations of fat and corpulence have been both demonized and rendered invisible This volume will be a crucial corollary to work on the tyranny of slenderness a collection of different perspectives on the fat body is sorely missing in women's studies communication and media studies Sarah Banet Weiser author of The Most Beautiful Girl in the World Beauty Pageants and National Identity

Arturo Islas Arturo Islas, 2003-04-30 Prolific poet essayist and short story writer Arturo Islas 1938 1991 is well known for his two insightful novels The Rain God and Migrant Souls His untimely death to AIDS truncated a productive and influential career that has left a yawning gap in Latino letters Islas was a dedicated thoughtful and style conscious writer who promoted a sense of responsibility to community and art for both writers and critics The quality of his commitment was matched by the example he set in delving into the esthetics and psychology of gay creativity an exploration that took him to uncompromising confrontations with his own traditional upbringing Islas has made his mark as a writer of the U S Mexico border and a leader at the forefront of exploring more social psychological and philosophical boundaries As a Chicano from El Paso as a gay Latino writer Islas surmounted many boundaries borders and established roles in this he is a standard bearer for all of Latino literature A seasoned scholar and professor in the English Department at Stanford University for most of his professional life Islas maintained an extensive collection of works records and papers The present volume is the product of another Stanford graduate Frederick Luis Aldama who combed through the Islas archive and recovered the short fiction poetry and essays on Chicano letters that Islas did not have the opportunity to publish Aldama has organized these materials and edited them so that they may be accessible and broaden the vision of Arturo Islas as writer and thinker
