Eric Gill Fiona MacCarthy,1989 Eric Gill was a master typographer sculptor and wood engraver and a devoted family man and key personality in three Catholic art and craft communities He also believed in complete sexual freedom The author analyzes these apparent contradictions and considers Gill the man and the artist Eric Gill, Man of Flesh and Spirit Malcolm Yorke,1981 Autobiography Eric Gill,2019-01-13 ERIC GILL s iconoclastic ideas on modern civilization art sex and life generally drop like bombshells from the pages of this account of his search for The City of God Completely devoid of social or professional ambition and detesting material success this artist of the first order preferred to live the simple life of a stone cutter and craftsman Richly illustrated with 36 gravure reproductions of the author s most outstanding work Eric Gill Joseph Thorp,1929 Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag,2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1961 ERIC GILL. Malcolm Yorke,1981 A Cell of Good Living Donald Attwater,1969 This biography of Eric Gill written by a close friend Donald

Attwater examines Gill's life works and beliefs Work of Words Marcus Waithe, 2022-11-18 Rather than focus on the well known dignity of literature debate whereby authors such as Dickens sought to establish authorship as a middle class profession The Work of Words considers the alternative path of middle class writers who re-presented literature as a manual craft Unlike many works in the field it extends beyond the mid Victorian novel as a generic and historical focus to address its aesthetic and political afterlife right up to the periods of Guild Socialism modernism and European fascism Given the tilt of world trade towards China and more recent supply chain shocks it is not just writers who are haunted by a lost world of material production but much of the de-industrialised West By studying the Victorian attempt to make composition and related mental processes palpable this book takes the long view on questions that still trouble us and responds to recent concerns whether as manifested through the revival of craft and workshop culture or debates about the visibility weight and worth of the humanities Literary Converts Joseph Pearce, 2009-09-03 Literary Converts is a biographical exploration into the spiritual lives of some of the greatest writers in the English language Oscar Wilde Evelyn Waugh C S Lewis Malcolm Muggeridge Graham Greene Edith Sitwell Siegfried Sassoon Hilaire Belloc G K Chesterton Dorothy Sayers T S Eliot and J R R Tolkien The role of George Bernard Shaw and H G Wells in intensifying the religious debate despite not being converts themselves is also considered Many will be intrigued to know more about what inspired their literary heroes others will find the association of such names with Christian belief surprising or even controversial Whatever viewpoint we may have Literary Converts touches on some of the most important questions of the twentieth century making it a fascinating read
