Hildebrand](#) Kirby Ross,Daniel E. Sutherland,2016-08-01 Most Civil War historians now agree that the guerrilla conflict shaped the entire war in significant ways Some of these bushwhackers Nathan Bedford Forrest William Clarke Quantrill John Singleton Mosby have become quite infamous Illiterate Sam Hildebrand one of Missouri s most notorious guerrillas often compared to Rob Roy and the subject of dime novels was one of the few to survive the war and have his story taken down and published Shortly after this he was killed in a barroom brawl I make no apology to mankind for my acts of retaliation I make no whining appeal to the world for sympathy I sought revenge and I found it the key of hell was not suffered to rust in the lock while I was on the war path Sam Hildebrand Hildebrand s reign of terror gave the Union army fits and kept much of the Trans Mississippi especially Missouri roiling in the 1860s Over seven years of fighting he and his men killed dozens of soldiers and civilians whites and blacks he claimed to have killed nearly one hundred himself He was accused of many heinous acts The historical significance of Hildebrand s story is substantial but his bloody tale is eminently readable and stands quite well on its own as a cold blooded portrait of a violent time in American history Like the nightmarish and depraved world of the Kid in Cormac McCarthy s novel Blood Meridian Hildebrand s world is truly ruthless and his story is brutally descriptive in its coolly detached rendering of one man s personal war Published in 1870 Hildebrand s autobiography has long been out of print and has been a rare and highly prized acquisition among Civil War Autobiography of Samuel S Hildebrand, the Renowned Missouri Bushwhacker Being His Complete Confession Samuel S. operated as guerrillas outside the normal chain of military command Like William Clarke Quantrill and Bloody Bill Anderson Samuel Hildebrand was a proud Missouri bushwhacker In this long out of print book Hildebrand describes raids and executions his band of men carried out He remained at the end of the war and unreconstructed rebel and fervent racist Like many of his southern brethren who fought he never owned slaves but kept a captured black man with him after the war This self serving but fascinating account is a valuable addition to the canon of Civil War literature In it Hildebrand claims that others have tried to tell his story but have gotten it wrong so he has a notarized statement by prominent men included as verification of authenticity Every memoir of the American Civil War provides us with another view of the catastrophe that changed the country forever

Autobiography of Samuel S. Hildebrand Samuel S. Hildebrand,James W Evans,2018-08-18 Autobiography of Samuel S. Hildebrand Samuel S. Hildebrand,2023-10-25 Samuel S Hildebrand s Autobiography of Samuel S Hildebrand is a compelling firsthand account of the author s experiences as a notorious Confederate guerrilla fighter during the American Civil War Hildebrand s writing style is stark and unapologetic mirroring the harsh realities of war that he faced The narrative is filled with vivid descriptions of battles betrayals and personal struggles providing readers with a unique perspective on the chaotic and violent nature of the Civil War era Hildebrand s autobiography stands out as a valuable historical document that sheds light on the turbulent times in which he lived His raw and unfiltered storytelling makes this book a captivating read for history enthusiasts and those interested in Civil War narratives Samuel S Hildebrand s personal account offers a firsthand glimpse into the life of a Confederate guerrilla fighter making it a must read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of this tumultuous period in American history
