Autobiography Politics And Sexuality:

Autobiography, Politics, and Sexuality William F. Pinar, 1994 Like a particularly heartfelt letter to the reader William Pinar's Autobiography Politics and Sexuality Essays in Curriculum Theory 1972 1992 asserts the viability of autobiography as a tool of study in the area of curriculum and instruction As an alternative to the sterile bureaucratic style of curriculum studies that dominated the field at one time William Pinar has reconceptualized curriculum studies in a more organic flexible and exciting way which honors the immediacy and complexity of students teachers and their relationships by taking into account their lives as they live them Autobiography Politics and Sexuality Essays in Curriculum Theory 1972 1992 is a classic in the field of education studies

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers

The Concept of Care in Curriculum Studies Jung-Hoon Jung, 2015-12-22 The question at the heart of the book is what might an education with self care and care for others look like Juxtaposing self understanding through the method of currere and the historical character of hakbeolism a concept indigenous to Korea referring to a kind of social status people achieve based on a shared academic background this book articulates how subjective reconstruction of self in conjunction with historical study can be transformative and how this can be extended to social change Articulating how having one's own standard can be a way of making one's life a work of art the author looks at how Korean schooling exercises coercive care disconfirmation and the whip of love for the children's own good Emphasis is given to the internalized status of these practices in both students and teachers and to teachers and parents culpability not only in exercising but also in reproducing these practices through themselves Going beyond describing and analysing the educational problem of academic intellectual achievement oriented education based on aggressive competition this book suggests ways to address these issues through autobiography using the method of currere to reconstruct one's subjectivity and an ethic of care

Body Counts Sean Strub, 2014-01-14 Sean Strub arrived in Washington D C in 1976 harbouring a terrifying secret his attraction to men As Strub explored the capital's political and social circles he discovered a parallel world where powerful men lived double lives shrouded in shame When the AIDS epidemic hit in the early 80s Strub turned to activism to combat discrimination and demand research Strub takes readers through his own diagnosis and inside ACT UP the activist organisation that transformed a stigmatised cause into one of the defining political movements of our time

Auto/biography Studies, 2000

Sissy Insurgencies Marlon B. Ross, 2021-12-06

In Sissy Insurgencies Marlon B Ross focuses on the figure of the sissy in order to rethink how Americans have imagined articulated and negotiated manhood and boyhood from the 1880s to the present Rather than collapsing sissiness into homosexuality Ross shows how sissiness constitutes a historically fluid range of gender practices that are expressed as a physical manifestation discursive epithet social identity and political phenomenon He reconsiders several black leaders intellectuals musicians and athletes within the context of sissiness from Booker T Washington George Washington Carver and James Baldwin to Little Richard Amiri Baraka and Wilt Chamberlain Whether examining Washington s practice of cleaning as an iteration of sissiness Baldwin s self fashioned sissy deportment or sissiphobia in professional sports and black nationalism Ross demonstrates that sissiness can be embraced and exploited to conform to American gender norms or disrupt racialized patriarchy In this way sissiness constitutes a central element in modern understandings of race and gender

Private Readings in Public Dennis J. Sumara, 1996

This book uses the set of relations announced by teachers and students readings of literary fictions as a commonplace location to interpret the experience of curriculum In addition to illuminating the complexity of schooled readings of literature Private Readings in Public provides insightful and provocative interpretations of the intertwined overlapping and ever evolving intertextual relations that comprise events of curriculum It will be of interest to those who wish to expand their understanding of the way in which interpretations of shared reading can become a literary anthropology where the identities of readers writers and teachers are continually re invented during processes of reading writing and teaching

The Tao of Life Stories Xin Li, 2002

The Tao of Life Stories explores curriculum as lifelong learning through Chinese women immigrants cross cultural experiences In answer to Walt Whitman s call for strangers to speak this book creates an extraordinary voice through its stories poetry and artistry The multicultural and global context of the new millennium challenges teachers to better our understanding of differences at personal professional and conceptual levels Do we all teachers and students alike bring unique experiences to our classrooms How do we acknowledge and learn from our experiences across cultural borders Philosophically practically vicariously and artistically this book promises to engage the reader in a postmodern cross cultural and global education Autobiography & Postmodernism Kathleen M. Ashley, Leigh Gilmore, Gerald Peters, 1994 Exploring the connections between autobiography and postmodernism this book addresses self representation in a variety of literatures Native American British Chicana immigrant and lesbian among others in genres as diverse as poetry naming confession photography and the manifesto The essays examine how different writers respond to the culturally specific pressures of genre how these constraints are negotiated and what self representation reveals about the politics of identity The Deviant's War Eric Cervini, 2020-06-02 FINALIST FOR THE 2021 PULITZER PRIZE IN HISTORY INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BEST SELLER New York Times Book Review Editors Choice Winner of the 2021 Randy Shilts Award for Gay Nonfiction One of The Washington Post's Top 50 Nonfiction Books of 2020 From a young Harvard and Cambridge trained historian and the Creator and Executive Producer of The Book of Queer coming June 2022 to Discovery the secret history of the fight for gay rights that began a generation before Stonewall In 1957 Frank Kameny a rising astronomer working for the U S Defense Department in Hawaii received a summons to report immediately to Washington D C The Pentagon had reason to believe he was a homosexual and after a series of humiliating interviews Kameny like countless gay men and women before him was promptly dismissed from his government job Unlike many others though Kameny fought back Based on firsthand accounts recently declassified FBI records and forty thousand personal documents Eric Cervini's The Deviant's War unfolds over the course of the 1960s as the Mattachine Society of Washington the group Kameny founded became the first organization to protest the systematic persecution of gay federal employees It traces the forgotten ties that bound gay rights to the Black Freedom Movement the New Left lesbian activism and trans resistance Above all it is a story of America and Washington at a cultural and sexual crossroads of shocking byzantine public battles with Congress of FBI informants murder betrayal sex love and ultimately victory Subjectivity, Identity, and the Body Sidonie Smith, 1993 JCT., 1991* Life History Research in Educational Settings Ivor Goodson, Patricia J. Sikes, 2001-09 It has long been recognised that life history method has a great deal to offer to those engaged in social research Indeed right from the start of the twentieth century eminent sociologists such as W I Thomas C Wright Mills and Herbert Blumer have suggested that it is the best the perfect approach for studying any aspect of social life In recent years life history has become increasingly popular with researchers investigating educational topics of all kinds including teachers perceptions and experiences of different areas of their lives and careers curriculum and subject development pedagogical practice and managerial concerns Life History Research in Educational Settings sets out to explore and consider the various reasons for this popularity and makes the case that the approach has a major and unique contribution to make to understandings of schools schooling and educational experience however characterised The book draws extensively on examples of life history research in order to illustrate
