Autograph Man A Novel:

The Autograph Man Zadie Smith, 2003-08-12 From the New York Times bestselling author of Swing Time and one of the most revered writers of her generation comes an intelligent exquisitely clever novel about fame mortality and the triumph of image over reality The Boston Globe Alex Li Tandem sells autographs His business is to hunt for names on paper collect them sell them and occasionally fake them all to give the people what they want a little piece of Fame But what does Alex want Only the return of his father the end of religion something for his headache three different girls infinite grace and the rare autograph of forties movie actress Kitty Alexander With fries The Autograph Man is a deeply funny existential tour around the hollow trappings of modernity celebrity cinema and the ugly triumph of symbol over experience It offers further proof that Zadie Smith is one of the most staggeringly talented writers of her generation The Autograph Man Zadie Smith, 2003-06-17 Alex Li Tandem sells autographs His business is to hunt for names on paper collect them sell them and occasionally fake them all to give the people what they want a little piece of Fame But what does Alex want Only the return of his father the end of religion something for his headache three different girls infinite grace and the rare autograph of forties movie actress Kitty Alexander With fries The Autograph Man is a deeply funny existential tour around the hollow trappings of modernity celebrity cinema and the ugly triumph of symbol over experience It offers further proof that Zadie Smith is one of the most staggeringly talented writers of her generation Look for her new book Swing Time coming November 2016 A Fluid Sense of Self Silvia Schultersmandl, Sebnem Toplu, 2010 In this era of increasing global mobility identities are too complex to be captured by concepts that rely on national borders for reference Such identities are not unified or stable but are fluid entities which constantly push at the boundaries of the nation state thereby re defining themselves and the nation state simultaneously Contemporary literature pays specific attention to internal and external notions of belonging Politics of Motion and definitions of self resulting from interpersonal relationships Politics of Longing This collection looks at texts by authors who are British American or Canadian but for whom a self definition according national parameters is insufficient The Crisis , 2002-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Zadie Smith Tracey Lorraine Walters, 2008 Zadie Smith Critical Essays is a timely collection of critical articles examining how Zadie Smith's novels and short stories interrogate race postcolonialism and identity Essays explore the various ways Smith approaches issues of race either by deconstructing notions of race or interrogating the complexity of biracial identity and how Smith takes on contemporary debates concerning notions of Britishness Englishness and Black Britishness Some essays also consider the shifting identities adopted by those who identify with both British and West Indian South Asian or East Asian ancestry Other essays explore Smith s contemporary postcolonial approach to Britain s colonial legacy and the difference between how immigrants and first generation British born children deal with cultural alienation and displacement This thought provoking collection is a much needed critical tool for students and researchers in both contemporary British literature and Diasporic literature and culture Back cover

Hybrid Novels George Kowalik,2025-10-03 The phrase post postmodernism has appeared in Contemporary Literary Studies since the 20th century but what does it mean Scholars have defined the term in various often contradictory ways Existing studies also rarely centralise race an essential component in the transition from postmodern irony to post postmodern sincerity Hybrid Novels analyses post postmodernism s only consistency and certainty hybridity This speaks for a broader social issue concerning the ethics of categorisation and the conflicting labels imposed on subjectivity Hybrid Novels considers landmark American British novels by Percival Everett Jonathan Franzen Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace published from 1996 to 2001 It positions these authors at the centre of the post postmodernism debate together for the first time This book suggests that 2010s autofiction further develops post postmodern tensions of irony and sincerity at the turn of the 21st century Major American Canadian novels by Sheila Heti Ben Lerner Teju Cole and Tao Lin are discussed published from 2010 to 2013
